'PINES' IN FLAME

Fire shoots from roof of "The Pines," historic old three-story house at 1404 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, during late Saturday night blaze. The house, vacant and slated for early demolition to make way for a new city hall, was gutted and the back wall was largely destroyed. Cause of the blaze was not determined.

Sausalito Hotel Fire; Blaze Beats Wreckers

Historic Mansion Gutted

The historic "Pines," a onetime San Rafael show place slated for demolition, was gutted by a blaze that drew hundreds of spectators Saturday night.

The three-story onetime mansion is one of five buildings which will be demolished to clear the site for a new San Rafael City Hall. Bids on the demolition are to be opened by the city council next Monday night.

BLAZE SPOTTED

The blaze was spotted in a lower floor of the house at 1404 Fifth Avenue at 10:45 p.m. by two passersby on motorcycles, who stopped Police Sgt. Raymond F. Bleasdale about half a block east on Fifth Avenue to report the firt. Bleasdale parked his motorcycle to investigate.

Within seconds, he said, flames leaped upward through the great central stairwell of the over-80-year-old house. The roof was ablaze by the time firemen arrived from the main firehouse, little more than a block away.

KEPT CONTAINED

Firemen kept the blaze contained and prevented its spread to the trees that surround the big frame structure, including one great pine tree remaining of the four that gave the mansion its name when it was built for Sydney V. Smith, prominent San Francisco attorney and its original owner.

Heavy smoke seeped around the windows of the San Rafael Library next door at Fifth Avenue and E Street.

Firemen were unable to determine the cause of the blaze. All tenants had been vacated over a month ago in preparation for the demolition, and the electricity had been cut off.

Mayor John F. McInnis had predicted such a fire in the old buildings purchased in acquiring a city hall site. In urging a

REPUBLICAN PARTY CONVENTION OPENS

Scranton Forces Immediately Explode With Move To Block 'Lily White' South

COW PALACE (UPI) — The 28th Republican Party Convention formally opened today and the Scranton forces immediately exploded an anti-Goldwater move designed to block the seating of "lily white" Southern delegates.

The Scranton people announced they would introduce a resolution requiring that no delegate from a state practicing racial discrimination would be placed on the permanent rolls of convention until there was an investigation of their credentials.

The move coincided with the threat of several Negro delegates to walk out of the convention if Sen. Barry Goldwater wins the GOP presidential nomination. One of these was George A. Parker, 78-year-old delegate from the District of Columbia who triggered a civil rights debate with Goldwater during the platform committee hearings last week.

Under the Scranton camp's plans, the motion aimed at the so-called "lily white" Southern delegations was to be offered as a substtitute for the routine opening-session motion to adopt the rules of the 1960 convention.

Meanwhile the Ohio delegation decided at a downtown caucus to give Goldwater 42 of its 58 votes.

Ohio originally had been committed to favorite son Gov. James A. Rhodes, but his decision last week to release them from this pledge and let them choose their own candidate came as a sharp setback to the hopes of Gov. William W. Scranton.

Scranton today picked up only two votes at the Ohio caucus, Rhodes getting 13 and Sen. Margaret Chase Smith 1.

Goldwater, meanwhile, said his delegate strength had climbed to "a little more than 800," with 655 needed for nomination. He made the comment after conferring with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in the general's suite at the St. Francis Hotel.

Goldwater also met privately with the Wisconsin delegation whose 30 votes presently are committed to the state's favorite son, Rep. John W. Byrnes. But this favorite son pledge is expected to be lifted shortly, and the majority of the delegation is said to be ready to go for Goldwater.

Scranton yesterday disputed the Senator's claim that he has enough votes to win on the first ballot—doing so in the blistering letter he sent to Goldwater which has produced the most drama yet in this convention city.

In the letter, accusing the Senator of everything from "nuclear irresponsibility" to "Goldwaterism," Scranton challenged his front-running opponent to a debate from the rostrum of the

Goerndt Is Hero In Fire

By BRUCE COLEMAN

There were two heroes —a man and a machine— in the early morning $65,000 fire today which devastated an old Sausalito landmark, the Harbor House at 2009 Bridgeway.

The man, police Sgt. Howard Goerndt, noticed smoke pouring out of the four-story building while he was on patrol at 3:40 a.m. He immediately called the fire department.

BEAT ON DOORS

Goerndt then went into the building to the third floor and beat on the doors of the hotel residents to awaken them, including the door of a 90-year-old woman who had lost her glasses. Goerndt was being treated today by his doctor for smoke inhalation.

The machine is the "snorkel," the Sausalito Fire Department's new hydraulic-lift aerial truck which carried a basket in which two men can stand.

POWERED WATER

"The snorkel saved us," said Fire Chief Matthew J. Perry. "That thing really did a job. We put it up right over the high voltage wires and powered water through the windows at 750 gallons per minute. The basket, manned by Frankie Christ and

Death Trial To Enter Sixth Week

By ROSS DAVIS

The ends of a strong prosecution's web, blessed with a real bonanza in circumstantial evidence, are enmeshing for the district attorney's office as the Donald G. Corbett Jr. murder trial goes into its sixth week tomorrow in Marin Superior Court.

Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales has indicated his lengthy battery of 50 state's witnesses will be finished in a day or two. The case already has smacked of such ingredients as love and perjury, attempted escape, and cries of courtroom misconduct by attorneys.

Lawyers for defendants John Lee King and Robert Lee Jones say they will have their day in court, too. Evasive about number of witnesses they anticipate, both Peter Allen Smith (representing King) and Thomas P. Boyd (for Jones) have nonetheless implied that unexpected testimony is forthcoming.

Both have claimed successful lie detector test results for their clients; both have maintained a constant belittling of Bales' admittedly circumstantial case. Both have also repeatedly moved for mistrials during presentation of the prosecution's case.

Body Off Pt. Reyes Has 3 Life Jackets

Marin County authorities today were trying to piece together the riddle of a Yuba City man whose attempt to become a commercial fisherman ended with his body being washed ashore on Point Reyes yesterday.

The body of Lawrence Ralph Nicholas, ??, wearing three life jackets, was found at 11:30 a.m. by a Novato family who were picnicking near the RCA shortwave radio station at Point Reyes.

Nicholas was identified later by his brother, Lewis Nicholas of Sacramento.

Marin County Coroner Frank J. Keaton said he was told by a Bodega Bay sport shop owner that Nicholas had recently gone there, purchased a 30-foot fishing boat, renamed it "Vonda" in honor of his wife, and announced his intention to start a commercial fishing operation.

His brother, however, said his only boating experience had been with an outboard motor on a lake.

Nicholas bought a commercial fishing license June 30. The last time he is known to have been seen alive was July 1, when he purchased small items from the Bodega Bay shop.

He had been the owner of a forklift rental firm in Yuba City, but sold it about a month and a half ago when he went to Bodega Bay, Keaton said.

Surviving are his wife, two sons, 20 and 17, and two daughters, 14 and 13, as well as his mother, his brother and two sisters.

The body was found by Loren C. Lind of 9 Hansen Road, Novato, and his 14-year-old son James, as they were walking along the beach during a family picnic.

It was clad in khaki pants and shirt and the three life jackets. Nicholas' wallet contained no money, and he wore no jewelry.

The Bodega Bay sport shop owner said the boat was a type which could be handled by one man, and which would be difficult to overturn.

RISE RAISED HIGHER BY CUTTERS

Now's the time to act if you need a haircut, because Wednesday the price for a trim in Marin goes up 25 cents to $2.50.

The raise is part of an escalator clause in a contract signed in 1962 by Marin County barbers. It had been expected to amount to a dime, but a petition was circulated among members of Barbers' Local 582 of San Rafael to make the jump to $2.50, and this morning secretary Manuel Martin of the local announced that all 65 shopowners had approved the petition.

Asked the reason for the larger increase, Martin explained, "We skipped last year on the escalator clause, and now San Francisco has gone beyond us. Our costs are somewhat higher over here, due to higher rents and taxes."

Youth Faces Ike Assault Charge

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — Melvin Phillip Floyd, 23, was to face Corporation Court today charged with simple assault on Eisenhower.

The charge against the Spearman, Tex., youth grew out of an incident which occurred during Eisenhower's stopover here Saturday. A placard thrown in the air struck the former president in the side.

Eisenhower telegraphed mayor F. V. Wallace of Amarillo Sunday that the incident "was nothing but a spontaneous reaction to excitement" and "I trust the matter will be dropped."

Stinson Beach State Park Open Again

With cooler weather and a heavy fog diminishing the danger of fire, Stinson Beach State Park reopened today after being closed to the public over the weekend for only the second time in its history.

Park Supervisor Richard Carlson closed the park Saturday and yesterday due to a water shortage resulting from the dry winter weather in Marin.

The Stinson Beach Water Co., which supplies the park, is in the process of tapping a lower spring on the Steep Ravine Creek to provide a greater supply. George Leonard, owner of the company, reported that the six-foot high concrete dam being built at the site was started today, and the water should flow from there in about two weeks.

Heat Hits High, Drops In County

Marin County's latest hot spell appeared to have hit its peak and tapered off over the weekend, with yesterday's highs in most areas a few degrees lower than those recorded Saturday.

Temperature in San Rafael at noon today was 67.

Fog, which usually works to lower the mercury, was reported this morning in Mill Valley, Woodacre and much of southern Marin.

San Anselmo topped the list of weekend temperatures with a high Saturday of 102 and a top of 96 yesterday. San Rafael had maximum readings of 97 both days.

Continued fair weather was forecast by the Weather Bureau, with a cool 78 predicted as tomorrow's high for San Rafael, an indication the county may be able to take a breather from the kind of scorcher which felled a 46-year-old construction worker on a construction job at Harbor Point Friday.

Carl Goode of San Francisco, employed by Barn Hill Construction Co., collapsed on the job about 5 p.m. Friday from heat exhaustion. He was revived by the Alto Fire Department

Psychiatrist Turns Surgeon In Vietnam

Maj. Jon Bjornson of Mill Valley, a 31-year-old psychiatrist serving with U.S. military forces in South Vietnam, has won praise from both American and Vietnamese officials for performing 24 hours of continuous surgery during the past weekend in one of the biggest battles of the war.

The fighting took place in Choung Thien province, in the Mekong River Delta. While the Communist Viet Cong were killing, capturing or wounding 200 government troops, Major Bjornson operated on a steady stream of the wounded, including Maj. Trinh Huu Hghia, deputy province chief who was shot in the chest, Associated Press reported today.

Mrs. Judith Bjornson, the medical officer's wife who lives at 174 Montecimas Avenue, Mill Valley, said today, "I've known for several weeks that he was in the delta at Can Tho," a town at the mouth of the Mekong River.

Major Bjornson has been in Vietnam since May 6, when he was re-assigned from Fort Riley, Kan. The Bjornsons lived in Marin and at the Presidio of San Francisco from 1958-1962, when he was serving his internship and psychiatric residency at Letterman General Hospital.

"As far as I know," reported Mrs. Bjornson, "he is the only army psychiatrist in Vietnam. I know that he has done almost no surgery in the past five years."

The Bjornsons, both natives of New York, have three children, Noelle, 5; Amy, 4; and Jon, who is six months old.

Skier Killed

LAKE ARROWHEAD (AP) — A 7-year-old girl was fatally injured after she fell from her water skis and a motorboat ran over her.

She was Patricia Blackman of Los Angeles.

After the girl fell Saturday, investigators said, her parents were circling to pick her up when another boat driven by Jo Ann Coppersmith, 33, San Marino, cut across her.

Miss Coppersmith said she did not see the child nor the Blackmans signaling that a skier was down. She was not charged.

WATERLOO, Iowa (UPI) — A $50,000 monument to the five Sullivan brothers, who died in action in the Solomon Islands during World War II, was scheduled to be dedicated this fall.

The Sullivans, natives of Waterloo, died 22 years ago under Japanese fire when their ship, the USS Juneau, sank in the Solomons.

The planned monument is to be erected on an eight-acre park site in the city's urban area, where the Sullivans lived before entering the navy. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sullivan still live in Waterloo.

The couple was wed Saturday night by Chief Judge David Bazelon of the U.S. Court of Appeals. Senator Solomon (D-Ore.) said she will seek re-election when her present term expires.

Tallulah is 125 miles southwest of Philadelphia, Miss., where three civil rights workers disappeared June 21 shortly after their release from jail on a speeding violation.

The condition of the body made it impossible to tell the sex or race.

Probe Continues In Shotgun Slaying

COLBERT, Ga. (AP)—FBI and Georgia state agents today pushed an intensive investigation into the mysterious shotgun slaying of a Washington Negro educator.

Penn, a lieutenant colonel in the Army Reserve, was killed by a shotgun blast fired from a car which passed his automobile from the rear about 10 miles northeast of Colbert.

Russian Farmers To Get Pensions

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev today announced old age pensions for collective farmers and pay raises for doctors, teachers and employees in housing and service industries.

Khrushchev said the farmers pension measure, affecting about 6.5 million peasants, was of "tremendous historical importance." Most of them have been outside the pension system.

In a speech at the opening of the summer session of the Supreme Soviet, or parliament, Khrushchev said the country's agricultural position had improved so that farmers could now be brought under the system.

The pension plan described by Khrushchev envisions minimum monthly payments of $13.20 and a maximum of $112.20 beginning next year.

The payments, however, were tightly hitched to wage levels reached before retirement age 65 for men and 60 for women.

"Let every person know that if he works well today, he will be better provided for in his old age," Khrushchev said.

"Such an approach is in the interests of the collective farmers and in the interests of the entire Soviet society."

Khrushchev announced average wage increases of 25 per cent for workers in education, 23 per cent in public health, 25 per cent in retail trade and 15 per cent in retailing, housing and municipal services.

The increases will begin with public service workers in October and all will be in effect in all categories by the end of 1965, said Tass, the Soviet news agency.

Khrushchev declared real income of the Soviet people has risen 61 per cent in the past decade. But he said not enough is being done to satisfy public demand for consumer goods. He called for greater efforts to increase production of such goods.

Khrushchev said the improving the living standards of the people is the most important problem for the Soviet Union.

The premier reported that half of the Soviet working people have high school education or better. More than 30 per cent of the national income is spent on education, he said.

Khrushchev scorned Western speculation about agricultural failure in the Soviet Union last year.

Although 12 million tons of grain were purchased abroad he said, this was only testimony to the strength of the economy. Measures are being taken to increase agricultural production, he said.

Three Car Crash Hurts Two Persons

Two persons were injured in a three-car rear-end collision on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard near Mountain View Avenue, San Anselmo, at 2:40 p.m. yesterday.

Taken to Marin General Hospital were Mrs. June Anderson, 39, of Pinole, who suffered bruises on the back and neck and was treated and sent home, and Daniel Schultz, 22, of San Francisco was treated for face cuts.

Michael H. Ayers, 22, of San Francisco, driver of the car in which Schultz was a passenger, said he was momentarily distracted when he was stopping for a red light on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. His vehicle collided with the rear of a car driven by Cecil B. Anderson, 38, Mrs. Anderson's husband, San Anselmo police reported.

The Anderson car was pushed into the rear of one driven by Robert N. Mikulic, 31, of San Mateo, which had stopped for the red light.

Boy Thrown From Moving Truck

An 11-year-old Fresno boy was treated at Marin General Hospital for scrapes and bruises of the face and chest after he fell from a moving pickup truck on Highway 1 about two miles south of Tomales at 4 p.m. Saturday.

The California Highway Patrol said Michael Cary apparently had loosened the latch of the door in the truck, driven by Thomas L. Forster, 27, of 188 Bothin Road, Fairfax.

When the truck went around a curve, Michael fell on the edge of the roadway and rolled into a field of grass.

Goldwater Backers Take A Big Plunge

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—"I'm afraid if I get in this thing, it will probably fail," said 240-pound Frank Lanterman as he hesitantly stepped aboard a crowded elevator at the Huntington Hotel yesterday.

But, encouraged by an assurance from someone in the elevator that "there's always room for one more," Lanterman and several others stepped on at the ninth floor and the elevator started its descent—a descent that did not stop until the elevator crashed with a jolt in the basement.

None of the dozen persons on the elevator, including five Goldwater delegates, were injured seriously. Several suffered cuts and bruises from flying glass but none required hospitalization.

California State Sen. Jack Schrade of San Diego was one of those who got on the elevator with Lanterman at the ninth floor. Lanterman is a member of the California State Assembly. Schrade said someone attempted to get off the elevator at the sixth floor.

"But it wouldn't stop," Schrade said. "It went faster and faster, swaying back and forth.

"Nobody said a thing, except for the operator who told everybody to brace themselves. Then we crashed into the basement."

Only one person fell to the floor, but an overhead light shattered and spread flying glass over the passengers. Everyone walked away after being checked by a doctor in the hotel.

Hotel officials declined to speculate on the cause of the accident.

Belvedere Bang Just Belated 4th Celebration

"Somebody pushed the panic button," as one Belvedere city official said, and sent firemen and police scurrying over the hills and down to the water last night to find out about a reported "explosion."

The big bang turned out to be skyrockets left over from Fourth of July celebrations. Police reported they were fired about 10:30 p.m. from the vicinity of 176 Madrone Avenue in Belvedere. Their flare was reflected in the water of the San Francisco Yacht Club below.

The reflection startled residents who feared another yacht explosion, similar to the one Friday night in which 21 persons escaped death.

MIDHURST, England (UPI) — Prince Philip, Queen Elizabeth's sports-loving husband, was thrown from his pony yesterday during a polo match. He suffered a strained ligament in the left shoulder.

Megacycles Make Memorable Music

Hardly an evening goes by that someone doesn't telephone KTIM and rave about our BEAUTIFUL MUSIC on FM. It's on seven nights a week from 6 'til 9 and by far the most popular musical program we've ever run. With Commercials, of course. The finest restaurants in Marin sponsor the first hour or so. Then other merchants who want to reach good music listeners....

YOU'D PROBABLY BE surprised how many melodies go into such a production. We've just received about 1,200 new selection and arrangements. While you're reading this, switch on your FM BAND and listen at 100.9 MC. That's in the middle of the dial between KPEN and KNBR (not bad neighbors)... Now that the Little League is ending, even you folks without FM can hear good music until 8:30 p.m. on our AM STATION—at 1510 KC....

HAVE YOU HEARD our station announcements over the weekend? "Welcome Republican Convention Delegates to San Francisco—hope you can spend a little time in Marvelous Marin." (We'll report how many Democrats take umbrage)... Seriously, Marin highways and byways are loaded with visitors these days....

LET'S TRY to answer all questions with a smile and make 'em feel at home. Tell them to tune in KTIM. (The HOTLINE could even save their lives)... Incidentally, why not put one of our commuter strips on your rear bumper? The more people who ride the Hotline to and from work—the safer your REAR END!

GOLDWATERS GO FOR STROLL

Goldwater 'A Shoo-In' —Barring A Miracle

Even the staunchest backers of moderate Republicans such as Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and Gov. William Scranton openly admit that Barry Goldwater is a shoo-in, barring a miracle.

Among them is Mrs. Lee Sherry of Fairfax, women's vice chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, who has been a strong Rockefeller backer from the outset.

In an interview at the Franciscan Hotel in San Francisco yesterday, Mrs. Sherry conceded that short of a miracle, Goldwater will be the party nominee for president.

"I talked to Mary Scranton, and she's very confident," said Mrs. Sherry. "I saw Governor Scranton at the reception Tuesday night and was impressed with him. But I've talked to too many delegates, and Governor Scranton's chances appear slim."

Mrs. Sherry said she will be attending the convention "only as an observer."

She appears to be looking ahead now to Aug. 1 and 2, when the Republican State Central Committee will meet in Sacramento to elect new officers. This will be the fight between the moderates and the conservatives for control of the state Republican Party machinery.

Apparently undaunted by the Goldwater boom, Mrs. Sherry declared flatly: "You know, I'm going to run again as women's vice chairman of the state central committee."

"Goldwater forces are backing Vern Christina of Santa Clara County for vice chairman of the Republican Central Committee."

She said the moderates are backing James Halley, San Mateo County Republican Committee chairman, as state vice chairman. "Goldwater forces are trying to get complete control. We're going to fight this."

Other moderate Republicans who are at the convention as observers are State Sen. John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley. Both were strong Rockefeller supporters, but with the New York governor's defeat in California, McCarthy and Bagley have called for party unity behind whoever is nominated at this convention.

RIGHTS MARCHERS DENOUNCE BARRY

Negro, White Demonstrators Say Senator Is Totally Unacceptable For Presidency

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater was denounced as a totally unacceptable republican presidential candidate by speakers at a massive civil rights rally here yesterday.

The demonstrators, both Negro and white, were estimated by police to number around 35,000. They moved slowly, 15 abreast, up Market Street to the civic center plaza where they were addressed by Negro civil rights leaders including James Farmer, national head of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), and William Chester, chairman of the San Francisco Negro Labor Assembly.

New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, Henry Cabot Lodge, and New York Sens. Jacob Javits and Kenneth Keating also addressed the marchers. But they did not mention Goldwater by name.

Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania, who has campaigned for a stronger civil rights plank in the GOP platform, was not present at the rally. Aides said this was because the governor had many previous commitments including an appearance on a national television show.

Scranton also addressed several state delegations yesterday afternoon.

"This is the face of freedom, the real America, and the Republican Party must listen," Farmer told the demonstrators. "If the Republican Party nominates Goldwater. It will sound its own death knell."

"We are not against the Republican Party, but we want the world to know that Senator Goldwater is not fit to be a candidate for president of the United States."

Rockefeller and Lodge praised the demonstrators.

"We share your aspirations," said Rockefeller, "and we're going to fight to the end."

Lodge called for steps to end discrimination, including "a Marshall plan for our cities and our schools."

"There's an old saying 'justice delayed is justice denied,'" he said, "and justice has been denied a long, long time."

The rally was sponsored by a coalition of Negro, labor and church groups. Leaders said a similar demonstration is planned for the Democratic convention in Atlantic City next month.

Police said there were no incidents as the marchers moved slowly and quitely up Market Street. They stretched out over nine blocks in what police described as the city's largest civil rights demonstration.

Marinites Take Part In Convention

Marin has only one official delegate to the 1964 Republican National Convention, but many others are taking active part in the big show.

John W. Clow of Mill Valley, who ran unsuccessfully for president of the California Young Republicans last February, has a key role in arranging transportation for the Republican bigwigs.

He was the one who originally picked a gold Cadillac for possible use as Barry Goldwater's official car. This was later replaced by a more conventional colored limousine as being more appropriate for the Arizona conservative.

Clifford Gerstner, president of the Marin Young Republicans, and his wife, Patricia, helped meet delegates at San Francisco International Airport and provided transportation to their hotels. Mrs. Gerstner, who was Marin co-chairman for Goldwater in the June primary, will attend some of the Cow Palace sessions.

Among other Marin Republicans spotted yesterday were Gerald Misner, chairman of the Republican Central Committee, who is helping out in the County Chairmen's Hospitality Room; and Eric Lane, president of the Marin division of the United Republicans of California, staffing the Goldwater Hospitality Room at the Fairmont.

740 Votes Now Credited To Barry

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater's lines held firm today as Republicans opened their 28th national convention, apparently determined to make him their presidential nominee.

With the nominating roll call two days away, the Arizona senator was credited with 740 votes — 85 more than the 655 needed for nomination if all stick with him, according to an Associated Press survey of the 1,308 delegates. Pennsylvania's Gov. William W. Scranton was credited with 169.

The first-ballot lineup, based on primary commitments, convention instructions, pledges and state preferences, read this way:

Goldwater	740
Scranton	169
Nelson A. Rockefeller	103
Henry Cabot Lodge	45
Margaret Chase Smith	18
Favorite sons	47
Uncommitted	186

Goldwater's votes included 303 from delegates who favor him but are not officially bound. All of Scranton's are in that category.

Most of Scranton's efforts to win the nomination for himself were aimed at the favorable but unpledged Goldwater delegates.

He gained some votes yesterday, but none of them — at least publicly — came from any supporters of Goldwater. And unless he can get Goldwater's total below 655 on the first ballot, it's all over.

In yesterday's skirmishing Scranton picked up a net gain of five votes, but Goldwater had nine additional votes.

Goldwater could garner further support today when the Ohio delegation is formally released from its favorite-son pledge to Gov. James A. Rhodes. A new AP poll of the delegation shows 20 for Goldwater, eight for Scranton and 30 uncommitted. Some of the uncommitted have indicated they will stick with Rhodes whether he releases them or not.

Charger Is Missing

Sea Way Marine of 145 Third Street, San Rafael, reported to police Friday that a battery charger, valued at $160, was taken from the premises sometime Monday. The report was not made earlier because the owner at first thought one of the employees had borrowed the charger, police said.

Wife Gives Hubby Run For Council

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—"You can't tell your husband everything, you know," says Mrs. Patricia Milan.

For instance, she didn't tell him she planned to run against him for a seat on Flint's nonpartisan city commission.

To Edward Milan, 40, a jeweler, the news came as a surprise.

The couple say they have disagreed about some local political issues.

Milan found out about his wife's plans when he went to the city clerk's office to obtain nomination petitions. He learned his wife had picked up a set of petitions—but not for him.

CHARRED REMNANTS—Fireman Ralph Pedersen looks through debris on burned third floor of the Harbor House in Sausalito for clues to what started fire that routed residents and did $65,000 damage today. Watching is fireman John Flystre. Credited with saving the residents by awakening them when the early morning fire was sighted was Sgt. Howard Goerndt of Sausalito police. Mike Kyle, was above the smoke."

Several tenants were burned superficially about the face and hands in the fire but none was hospitalized.

Many of the hotel residents jumped out of windows to escape. One, Albert Wax who had room 43 on the top floor, told firemen he had been sleeping nude and on awakening tried to escape through his door but could not. He put on a shirt and pants and leaped from his window 10 feet to the nearby roof of the Vista, an apartment house at 2015 Bridgeway. Wax was uninjured.

Fire damage was estimated at $65,000 by Taylor Collings, who leases the building. Collings said he believes the building is a "total loss." He could not estimate loss in property to the 18 tenants, the hotel's 18 rooms being all occupied.

He said he and his wife had taken over the hotel about a year ago and fully remodeled it. The Collings were asleep on the bottom floor at the time of the fire.

Cause of the fire was undetermined today. Police Chief Kenneth H. Huck said officers are to question Archie Fields, who lived in room 45 where the fire was believed to have broken out.

The fire spread throughout the entire hotel building, burning out the greater portion of the roof and charring floors, walls, ceilings and furniture.

There was heavy water damage to the Pete's Pier 16, a bar and restaurant at 2005 Bridgeway which is attached to the hotel. Lewis Tresrau, who owns the bar and restaurant as well as the hotel, said he could not estimate damages. Tresrau, who lives at Casa Madrona Hotel at 156 Buckley Avenue, said he hopes to be able to reopen Pete's Pier in about two days.

Forty firemen fought the blaze, which was fed by strong winds from the ocean. It was brought under control in an hour. Five firemen from Alto-Richardson Bay Fire Department assisted.

Goerndt was knocked down at one point after he kicked open a door to a fire escape to let people out. "A big black puff of smoke billowed out with fire in it and knocked him down," said Chief Huck. "He crawled on the floor under smoke to the stairway to get outside. Other people jumped from the second floor to a slanting roof and onto the ground."

Fireman Ralph K. Pedersen, said Goerndt, helped Emelia Palmer, 90, out of the hotel after she had lost her glasses and was unable to see her way

Suffering minor burns were tenants Ed Schultz, room 41; Robert Frutchz, room 42; Joseph Cholema, room 48; Wax; Warren Straw, room 47, and Fields.

Both Schultz and Frutchz blistered their hands while feeling their way along a hot wall to the fire escape.

"Goerndt's alertness and quick action contributed to getting the people out in time and reducing injuries," said Huck.

The red-shingled hotel was once known as the Pembrook, was called the Motor Inn in World War II when owned by Daisy Simpson, and had one time been called the Coral Lodge.

"It was built by the railroad about 80-85 years ago," Collings said.

Baby Face Nelson, notorious gangster of the 1930's, reportedly once lived there while hiding out from the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

resuscitator squad, then treated at Marin General Hospital.

Another result of the sunny weather was one of the heaviest traffic weekends ever recorded on Marin County roads. This, in turn, led to extreme highway congestion and a high rate of accidents, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Traffic on Highway 101 in northern Marin was backed up to the county line at 10:30 p.m. yesterday, and similar conditions existed on the Black Point cutoff, the patrol said.

About 30 accidents were investigated by the patrol in the county over the weekend. Cars stalling from overheated radiators added to the chaotic road conditions.

"It was the heaviest day I have seen," commented veteran Highway Patrol Sgt. James Dukes. He said newly completed freeway work in north Marin failed to prevent traffic bottlenecks.

The Golden Gate Bridge handled 84,659 cars during the 24-hour period ending at midnight today, a near record.

For those people who stayed home and sweltered, there was some consolation in glancing at other cities' temperatures, such as the 118 recorded in Thermal, the Las Vegas high of 110 and Bakersfield's 108. Ukiah had 105 Saturday.

San Francisco, meanwhile, had a high of 71 yesterday, while the nations coolest cities were Albuquerque and Fairbanks, Alaska, with 67.

Here are some of yesterday's highs for Marin County areas, with Saturday high in parentheses:

Woodacres 95 (97), Novato 92 (99), Mount Tamalpais 86 (86), Mill Valley 82 (88), Fairfax 93 (98), Point Reyes 75 (80).

Lows in most areas, which have been ranging from 50 to 55, were expected to stay the same.

Brothers Guilty Of Assault

Two San Rafael brothers plead guilty to assault charges in Marin Superior Court today and were sentenced to six months in county jail.

Leroy Patrick Grundhauser, 25, of 1533 Fourth Street, and Richard John Grundhausen, 28, of 8 Taylor Street, originally pleaded not guilty to charges of assault with a deadly weapon and were scheduled for trial.

They pleaded guilty when the charge was reduced to assault. The brothers were arrested for assaulting John Anthony Montero and Billie Jo Miller Jr. with knives in San Rafael Feb. 8.

Municipal Court Judge Leonard A. Thomas ruled the brothers would be credited for time already spent in jail.

TRIAL

and are accumulating an impressive pile of objections for appeal, should the trial result in conviction.

Jones and King are jointly charged with the March 27 icepick and bludgeoning slaying of Corbett in his Sausalito apartment and with the March 25 armed robbery of Harbor Liquor Store in Alto. Jury selection began June 9 after the defense won court permission for access to a large quantity of information held by the district attorney's office.

Even before completion of the panel, however, the defense of Jones was shaken with discovery of that bars had been sawed on a window of a jail cell occupied by Jones and an armed robbery suspect, Joe Earl Martin, escapee from Soledad Prison.

Marin County sheriff's office failed to determine who sawed the bar. Boyd asked for a mistrial and for a change of venue. Smith, too, promptly called for severance in trial of King on grounds of prejudice by association.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson, who earlier replaced Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. after the latter disqualified himself at Jones' request, denied all three motions.

Prosecution's testimony began June 16 with Sylvester Schaldweiler, operator of Harbor Liquor Store, pointing out King and Jones as the pair who robbed him at gunpoint of $446.

Robert Urban, of Mill Valley, told of finding Corbett's body March 30.

Two attractive women, Rosalinde Estes, 27-year-old girlfriend of Corbett, and Karen Corbett, his estranged wife, told of a strange male voice answering the telephone in Corbett's apartment on March 27.

Dr. Robert Kenneth Corbett, brother of the victim, identified a host of personal belongings of Donald Corbett allegedly found in the possession of Jones and King when they were arrested in Hawaii.

In addition, the doctor termed forgeries about 35 signatures on credit card receipts made out to his brother.

A handwriting expert, Sherwood Morrill with California Criminal Identification and Investigation Bureau, said the forgeries were in the handwriting of King. Russell J. Parmer, fingerprint authority with the state bureau, testified that prints taken from a car containing articles owned by Corbett belonged to Jones.

The credit card receipts themselves testified to a cross-country flight from San Francisco to Miami, Fla., New Orleans, and back to Los Angeles before departing to Hawaii.

A third C.I.I. man, Allan E. Gilmore, testified a partially used roll of two-inch-wide adhesive tape found in a suitcase allegedly left in Los Angeles by the defendants, and the strips of tape used to bind Corbett's wrists, ankles, and mouth were of the same type. The roll's end matched that of one end of the torn binding, he added.

Ronald Potter, rental agent for Avis Rent-a-Car in San Francisco, testified King rented a 1964 Lincoln convertible on Corbett's credit card, and Howard Bambury, night bellman at Mapes Hotel in Reno, told of King and Jones checking into the hotel March 29—two days after the slaying—with King using the name, Corbett.

In addition, several witnesses testified of seeing paintings stolen from Corbett's apartment in the houseboats of King and Jones at Waldo Point.

Romance and perjury were revealed by Mrs. Arlene Farliss Walsh, 39, now residing in Fairfield, who admitted on the stand she lied before the grand jury because she loved Jones and wanted to protect him.

Hotel Wets Down Local Barry Backer

By WAT TAKESHITA

COW PALACE—Marin's lone representative, William O. Weissich, loaded down with convention badges and ribbons, took his place among the 86-member California delegation today as the Republican National Convention opened here.

His wife, Rosemary, sat behind the main platform overlooking the convention floor, with the families of the 2,616 delegates and alternates who have converged on San Francisco.

Yesterday's last-minute preparation for today's official opening was hectic for all delegates. For the Weissichs, their first day in Convention City started with a splash.

Yesterday noon, they checked into their modest hotel near Union Square and immediately ran into trouble.

"We hadn't even unpacked yet," Mrs. Weissich said later. "I just turned on the wash basin faucet, and the handle flew off."

A geyser of water shot up, drenching the ceiling and covering the entire washroom.

Weissich peeled off his suit and crawled under the downpour to turn off the valve below the wash basin. But by that time, both were drenching wet, and water was pouring into the living area.

They used newspapers in a futile effort to contain the tide to the bathroom, and called for help.

As if this wasn't enough, plumbers who came to repair the damage had to use crowbars to open the windows. And the television wouldn't work.

Spirits considerably dampened, the Weissichs picked up their bags and managed to find a suite in the modern Hilton Hotel, where they will be quartered for the remainder of the convention.

The rest of the afternoon was more like a convention.

The California delegation, pledged to Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater, caucused in the Venetian Room of the Fairmont Hotel.

Weissich, who represents the First Congressional District, was the first to be called by Chairman William F. Knowland to receive his badges, tickets and credentials.

Knowland set the tone for the California delegation with his booming reminder that all 86 California delegates have signed pledges to stick with Goldwater until they are released.

"A person's word is as good as hs bond, and no Californian will switch," Knowland declared, as the delegation roared approval.

During the caucus, Goldwater forces manned every door to the Venetian Room to keep out backers of Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton, who massed outside the room with placards and literature.

The California delegation appeared solidly united behind the Arizona conservative. If there were any chinks in the armor, they didn't show.

Rumors swept through the delegation that Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel who supported Gov. Nelson Rockefeller in the primary, would get a cold reception when he greets the convention delegates today.

Knowland, sensing what was happening, called on the delegates to treat "all speakers with courtesy."

Knowland released the delegates in mid-afternoon, warning them to attend each Cow Palace session with plenty of time to spare because "there may be attempts made to block traffic to the Cow Palace through demonstrations."

Back at their Hilton suite, the Weissichs were joined by Charles Tijerina of Belvedere, president of the Tiburon National Bank, who plans to attend several of the Cow Palace sessions.

Rocky Sees Chance To Stop Goldwater

COW PALACE—There is a good chance that Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania will stop Sen. Barry Goldwater on the first ballot, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York declared today at the Cow Palace.

Speaking to an Independent-Journal reporter, he gave this explanation:

"By the time the platform fights begin on the convention floor, the public will get a chance to see the extreme measures being used by Senator Goldwater. They will see that Scranton represents the moderate position.

"That, coupled with the polls showing two-to-one for Scranton, I think will stop Senator Goldwater on the first ballot."

Rockefeller said that out of the 92 votes in the New York delegation, 87 will vote for him.

Goldwater backers, however, are still convinced the senator will win on the first ballot.

Among Goldwater's strong supporters is Marin delegate William O. Weissich, member of the pro-Goldwater 86 member-California delegation. Said Weissich: "Senator Goldwater will not only win the nomination, he will go on to win the election in November."

Novato Trustees To Elect Officers

Novato Unifield School District trustees will reorganize the board as the first order of business at their meeting at 8 p.m. today in the district office.

The board will consider a request by the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum for a contract and will discuss renting a classroom in Marion School to the county for education of the mentally retarded.

Violinist's Concert Is Dazzling

By MAYBELLE SPECKMAN

Violinist Jacob Krachmalnick revealed in yesterday afternoon's Marin Music Chest concert the kind of talent one would expect from the new concert master of the San Francisco Symphony.

Since it was a perfect day, a number of vacant seats at Forest Meadows on the Dominican College campus in San Rafael may have been due to vacation time.

Krachmalnick displayed a technical wizardry that was dazzling, together with a wonderfully rich tone from the highest to the lowest registers of the violin. His program was well calculated to show off his mastery of his instrument.

Some may have thought there was a little too much emphasis on technical gymnastics, even though his performance was relaxed and seemingly effortless.

Especially enjoyable in the first half of the program, composed of "Fantasia in D Major" by Vivaldi-Respighi and Grieg's Sonata III Op. 45, was the identical rhythmical fluency of Krachmalnick and his accompanist at the piano, William Corbett Jones. Having played together many times before, they make a mutually complementary duo. However, Jones's own status as a concert artist perhaps led to the piano part being a little too predominant at times.

Smetana's nostalige "Aus Der Heiman," which opened the second half of the program, had the charm of simplicity before the final electrifyingly brilliant Sonata II Op. 94 by Prokofiev and "Scherzo Tarantelle" by Wienaiwski.

Brilliant, too, were the arrangements from "Carmen" that Krachmalnick played as his only encore.

Residents Study Inverness City

The possibility of a City of Inverness, which would be Marin County's 12th city, was discussed by members of the Inverness Improvement Assn. with mixed enthusiam Saturday night.

Newly elected president Elmer Williams said an incorporation committee had found that at least 500 residents are needed before incorporation can be considered.

Postmaster Lawrence Mery estimates that there are only 400 residents now in Inverness.

Nevertheless, members voted that incorporation study be continued, many believing that incorporation would be the best way to achieve control over planning and other aspects of future development.

Outgoing president Donald Patterson reminded members that a city council would have to be composed of voting, permanent residents of the community, and the association, with many members living in Inverness only part-time might not have so strong a voice as it does now.

About 60 members turned out for the association's annual meeting at Inverness School. Jack Kent of the planning committee described the recently published West Marin Master Plan. Members agreed on another general meeting in August with discussion of the association's master plan recommendations as the main topic.

The members voted to recommend that Sir Francis Drake Boulevard eventually be closed beyond Inverness when roads in the Point Reyes National Seashore are built. This would keep through traffic to the seashore from entering Inverness.

This recommendation came after Mrs. William Eastman, head of the park committee, reported it would be legal to close the road. She estimated it would be about 15 years before adequate alternate roads are developed in the seashore.

Williams asked for suggestions for association work in the future. Responses included a study of a foot path along Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, a general study of the bay and current bay fill projects, a study of a path to the top of Mount Vision and positive recommendations for the master plan.

In addition to Williams, other officers elected were Bradley Holbrook, vice president; Jack Mason, secretary and Richard Lyttle, treasurer.

Two-Car Crash On 101 Detour Injures Drivers

Two drivers suffered minor injuries in a two-car collision on Highway 101, just south of Hamilton Air Force Base, at 2:30 a.m. Saturday.

A car driven by Robert Boyd Champagne of 2043 Shady Lane, Novato, swerved off the roadway on a curve in a detour south of the air base and then swung onto the highway colliding with a car driven by Renee Lee Brown, 22, of 260 Merrydale Avenue, Santa Venetia, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Champagne, who suffered scrapes of the cheek and forehead, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital and released. Miss Brown, who suffered a bruised right shoulder and arm was taken to Novato General Hospital for observation. She was reported in good condition and released Saturday.

Civic Center Second Phase Is Due Board

The second phase of the Marin County Civic Center will be the major item on tomorrow's agenda of the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Architect Aaron Green will present a report on county needs and cost estimates on construction of the new wing of the building. The meeting starts at 9 a.m. at the Civic Center, but the presentation by Green is set for 11 a.m.

Although a firm figure on the cost has not been given officially, an estimate of 9.5 million dollars has been discussed during budget session by the board of supervisors, and a seven million dollar bond issue has been suggested to help finance the project.

The board will also wind up action on salaries of county employees. The board has agreed to convert to a new salary structure, called the "five-by-five" Plan, on Jan. 1, 1965, but has not set salaries for individual jobs in county service.

Under the plan, almost all employees would get at least a slight raise in pay in January, but some jobs have been slated for more substantial increases, according to the recommendation by Personnel Director Robert D. Elliott.

The board will be faced with the problem of finding funds to start construction of the widening of Point San Pedro Road to tie in with a project by the city of San Rafael to be started this fiscal year.

San Rafael city manager Dan E. Andersen, in a letter to the board, has said the city cannot wait an extra year for the county to save up the money to start on the project.

The board will officially receive a report on open area zoning for the lands of the Marin Municipal Water District from the county planning commission, although an informal report and discussion was made last week.

Up for approval will be a use permit for a school for the mentally retarded on a 2.9 acre parcel near Novato.

The giant anteater's tongue is 16 inches long.

Novato Planners To Take Up Industrial Park Zoning

The Novato Planning Commission will consider rezoning for the Novak Industrial Park at its meeting a 8 p.m. today in the community house.

John Novak and Alfred Bellucci are asking for a zone change from single family to light industrial and commercial for 49 acres east of Highway 101, west of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad, North of Novato Creek and south of Clausing Avenue.

Roberts and Aguirre have submitted a master plan for a 21-acre portion of Pleasant Valley property at Sutro Avenue and Center Road, in a planned single family residential zone.

Frank J. De Bora seeks rezoning from single family to commercial for parcels on South Novato Boulevard at Diablo Avenue and 400 feet south of the intersection.

Other items to be considered are: a tentative map of Cerro Vista Unit 4, submitted by Cerro Vista Homes Inc.; application for architectural supervision for an 18-unit apartment house on Hill Road west of Diablo Avenue by Charles P. Smith, and a request for architectural supervision of a Signal Oil Co. service station at South Novato Boulevard and Center road.

Elderly Man Pulled From Perch On Span

A 74-year-old San Rafael man, apparently bent on jumping, was rescued from a painter's scaffold below the north tower of the Golden Gate Bridge Friday afternoon.

The California Highway Patrol reported that Cesare Bettini of 103 Bungalow Avenue was discovered by painters on the scaffold, 12 feet below the bridge sidewalk, at 12:35 p.m. Bettini left three notes in a car parked at Vista Point indicating that he was contemplating suicide, the CHP reported. He was taken to the San Francisco County Hospital.

Copter Company Buys Maintenance Facility

San Francisco and Oakland Helicopter Airlines has purchased a large airline maintenance and repair facility at the Oakland International Airport, it has been announced by M. F. (Mike) Bagan, president of SFO.

The latest addition to the helicopter company, which maintains daily flight service between the San Francisco and Oakland airports, Marin, Berkeley and Downtown Oakland, is the Hangar Four Corp., a Federal Aviation Agency-approved repair station purchased from the Robert Dollar Corp.

Bagan said the acquisition will give SFO a broader economic base from which to operate and provide greatly needed space to accomodate expanded operations which are planned. The helicopter company has been leasing maintenance space at San Francisco International Airport and plans to leave these quarters and move maintenance operations to the Oakland Airport on Aug. 1.

"In line with this expansion, our next step will be to acquire 28-passsenger helicopters and expand out service into the Walnut Creek-Orinda, PâloAlto-Stanford and Sunnyvale-San Jose areas," Bagan said.

He noted the SFO also expects to be named operator of an experimental hovercraft program being sought by the Port of Oakland.

Stock Market Takes Slight Dip At Close

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed slightly lower today after erasing a morning gain.

Most changes were fractional. A number of blue-chip issues gave up a point or so and acted as a drag on the major averages.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.8 million shares compared with 5.48 million shares compared with 5.42 million Friday.

Prices opened higher and held fast until early afternoon. Then, as motor and steel issues settled backward the market as a whole hesitated. Last week these sectons led the way to a fifth consecutive weekly rise.

General Motors held a gain of a major fraction. The issue was trading around its all-time high.

Chrysler, which also set a new high early in the session, retained a small gain as did Ford, American Motors and Studebaker.

Among the steels, U.S. Steel, Republic and Jones ⅞ Laughlin showed small advances.

Nickel Plate Railway was up 2 and Wabash preferred nearly as much as the ICC gave conditional approval of a merger of the Nickel Plate into the Norfolk and Western. N. ⅞ W was down around ½.

GE and Liggett and Myers were up more than 1 each. Union Carbide lost about 1.

American Stock Exchange prices turned mixed in moderate trading.

The San Anselmo property has been sold to the Roman Catholic Archbishop of San Francisco (a corporation), and eventually will be used for an expansion of St. Anselm's School. Meanwhile we understand the building used by Currie and a 50-foot lot next door are up for leasing. It is being handled by San Rafael realty broker Fran Jenkins.

Thompson is taking the plumbing and radiant heat division of the business and moving it to Irwin Street, San Rafael—still using the name of Currie Heating and Plumbing Co.

Gene Currie has taken over the sheet metal and air conditioning and has opened as Currie Sheet Metal Co. at 20 Duffy Place, San Rafael.

Four Marin Students Report On Work With Negroes In South

Four young Marinites have had more than a week's taste of life in Mississippi and the reception they have received as members of the Council of Federated Organizations' summer project there.

"All black faces are friendly," 20-year-old Fred B. Winn of Sausalito wrote in a letter to his mother, Mrs. Booth Thomas of Mill Valley.

The majority of white people in the Town of Shaw, which has a population of about 2,000, are either indifferent or unfriendly to the young volunteers, he said.

Fred has been working during the day in the local community center, building shelves and desks which will be used for vocational training, English, prenatal and infant care and general hygiene classes.

He participates in the drive for Negro voter registrations from 4 p.m., when workers return from the fields, to 7 p.m. The volunteers are required by the Council of Federated Organizations to be off the streets after dark.

Karen Duncan, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Duncan of Novato, has been assigned to work in Canton, 35 miles northeast of Jackson.

During orientation sessions at Western College for Women in Oxford, Ohio, she and other volunteers were shown how to protect themselves by doubling up and falling to the ground if attacked, Karen wrote to her parents.

Working with Karen is Martha Wright, 25, daughter of Mrs. William H. McAvoy of 308 Riviera Drive, San Rafael.

The San Jose State College senior has written of constant surveillance given to the community center in Canton by police, presumably to prevent any acts of terrorism involving the building.

Elinor Tideman, a June graduate of Reed College in Oregon whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tideman, live in Larkspur, has complained of lack of interest in the terrorism inflicted on civil rights workers in Mississippi, until the recent disappearance of three men near Meridian.

"If two of the three who disappeared had not been white, the world would have heard much less of their disappearance, even today," she wrote.

"It is for the Negro community that we must ask protection. We can go back to the North in the fall . . . but the Negroes will be in Mississippi for a long time and so will terrorism and injustice."

Elinor has been working with other volunteers organizing the English program at the community center in Meridian. She teaches classes every day, one for 17- and 18-year olds and another for 14-year-olds.

The program at the center includes remedial work in reading, mathematics and basic grammar as well as seminars in political science, the humanities, journalism and creative writing.

Each of the volunteers is living with a Negro family while participating in the Peace Corps-type of project, in which freedom schools, community centers and research projects on state political and economic life are being conducted.

Builders Are Busiest In Tiburon

The newly incorporated city of Tiburon ranked high on the list as building permits reached $11,764 in Marin County last month, more than double the May total.

Tiburon registered $1,228,455 in permits, mostly apartments, placing third among cities behind San Rafael, $2,188,359, and Novato, $1,679,990.

The permit totals, boosted mainly by apartments, totaled 7.4 per cent above June, 1964, and brought the six-month total in Marin to $46,909,859, which is 3.8 per cent below the 1963 pace.

According to compilations by the Marin County Development Assn. the total in the unincorporated area was $6,655,233 in the cities and $4,708,531 in the unincorpoated areas.

Leaders in the unincorporated area were the Mill Valley area, $1,606,650, and the Kentfield-Greenbrae area, $1,087,315.

The residential permits includes 17 apartment projects and ten duplexes totaling 287 dwelling units, valued at $3,536,019, representing 63.9 per cent of all residential construction.

NEW LIFE-SAVING DEVICE

Being tested by California highway officials is this set of electronic devices to prevent motorists from unwittingly driving wrong-way on the state's freeways. Sensitive "triggers" in the pavement of off-ramps will be able to tell when a car passes over them in the wrong direction; flashing signs not only will alert the offender, but will warn right-way motorists about to use the off-ramp, and will keep track of how many mistakes are made, for officials to check later. AN ISLAND OF STEEL GOES TO SEA

The Blue Water II, an island of floating steel, headed for the open sea from Richmond yesterday to be used along with a deep-diving robot to drill for oil for Shell Oil Co. off the Marin coast. The vessel is seen in tow through the Golden Gate. The structure has an acre-sized deck, stands 260 feet from the bottom of its hull to the top of its tower. It will be used to drill in offshore leases off the Point Reyes Peninsula.

Goldwater Suit Called Time Waste

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon officials said Saturday that a San Francisco taxpayer is wasting his time by trying to oust Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) from his Senate seat because he is an Air Force Reserve major general.

But several senators have publicly questioned the constitutionality and propriety of members of Congress serving as military reserve officers.

Involved is a constitutional provision which says "no person holding any office under the United States shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office."

The taxpayer, Robert Schaff, filed a federal district court suit in San Francisco contending that Goldwater, front-running candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, had "defrauded the United States government for years" by serving as senator while an officer of the armed forces.

Schaff asked that Goldwater's Senate seat be vacated and that the senator repay the salary he had drawn while serving there.

Pentagon officials reported that 90 to 100 members of Congress hold active reserve officer commissions in the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps. And they said another 75 to 100 are inactive or retired.

Permit to use 19.9 acre feet yearly was granted by the state water rights board.

Nixon Avoids Memories, Cow Palace Hulabaloo

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Richard M. Nixon, around whom it all revolved four years ago, wasn't even on hand today when the Republicans opened their 1964 nominating convention.

The party's 1960 standard bearer, who abandoned any hopes for a second presidential nomination when Sen. Barry M. Goldwater pulled to a commanding lead, is not scheduled to arrive until tomorrow.

His official role in the convention is to introduce the party's nominee—presumably Goldwater—Thursday night with a speech of his own. Charles H. Percy, the GOP nominee for governor of Illinois, will present Nixon.

Longtime associates close to Nixon said he planned no particular activity during his brief convention stay. But his 12-year role as a key party figure denies him obscurity, especially in this city of his native state where he was triumphantly renominated for a second term as vice president in 1956.

Nixon has kept alone, at least publicly, from any "stop Goldwater" drive built around Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton or anyone else. His public posture has been one of neutrality.

Barry Hopes Gov. Wallace Quits Race

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Sen. Barry Goldwater has expressed hope that Gov. George Wallace of Alabama will cancel plans to run for president.

The Arizona senator said in an appearance before the Florida Republican delegation yesterday he hoped Wallace would realize that his candidacy would "add chaos to the chaos that already exists, and withdraw."

Republicans fear that Wallace would split the conservative vote and reduce Goldwater's chances in the South.

A Florida delegate told Goldwater there was widespread concern about Wallace's plans. "This is something to be concerned about," replied Goldwater.

"For the first time in my lifetime," he said, "there seems to be a basis of support for a third party." Goldwater said he has consistently opposed third party movements.

TV, Radio, Liquor Stolen From Yacht

A Pacifica woman reported the theft Saturday of a portable television set, a transistor radio and several bottles of liquor from her 35-foot pleasure boat, docked at the San Rafael Yacht Harbor.

Thelma H. Jacob told San Rafael police she valued the TV set at $189 and the radio at $15. She said someone picked a lock to enter the boat's cabin.

The district is asking approval of a $700,000 bond issue and $500,000 state loan for a new school at the Red Hill site and new classrooms at Sleepy Hollow and Hidden Valley Schools.

Sonoma Fair Set To Start

Animals, entertainment, contests and a beauty contest will be highlights of the 27th annual Sonoma County Fair, starting a 10-day run Wednesday at the Santa Rosa fairgrounds.

Billed as northern California's largest county fair, the event will use "California Heritage" as its theme.

Among events scheduled this week is the beauty contest, in which seven teenagers picked by Future Farmers of America, will vie for the title of Sweetheart of FFA's Sonoma County district. Judging will take place at 8 p.m. Thursday at the fairgrounds' Redwood Theater.

Qualifying rounds for the fair's horseshoe tourney are from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, with finals on Sunday. The "California Dirt Championships," in which some 80 5-year-old drivers will compete in low-powered motor cars, will take place Saturday and Sunday.

Also scheduled for Sunday, dubbed "Farmers Day," will be barrel races, milking contests, greased pig scrambles and other games.

Othe events planned include a three-day rodeo July 23-25, a roller derby July 21 and 22, "sing-along days" at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Chris Beck Arena, and a Young Adult Music Festival at 8 p.m. next Monday in the same arena.

Kentfield Home Damaged By Fire

Fire which began on the back porch of a home at 237 Laurel Grove Avenue, Kentfield, caused $4,000 damage to the structure and its contents at 8:35 p.m. Saturday.

The occupant, Eunice E. Reader was out of town.

Kentfield firemen said the blaze cause of which was undetermined, was confined to the porch, but there was smoke damage throughout the home.

Night Dip In Bay— Then The Fun Began

A 34-year-old Stanford University professor jumped from the Richardson Bay Bridge early yesterday, and told his rescuers two hours later that he "just wanted to go for a swim."

He was identified as Adam W. Haber, 34, of Palo Alto, an assistant professor of sociology at Stanford. It took a helicopter, a boat, a sheriff's deputy, two highway patrolmen and three firemen from the Alto-Richardson Bay Fire Department to find him and fish him out.

Deputy Sheriff Wade Powell spotted Haber's car stopped in the outside lane of the bridge at 2:10 a.m.

At about the same time passing motorists warned the California Highway Patrol that the car was creating a hazard, since the area was foggy at the time.

As Powell and two patrolmen prepared to drive the car, which still had the keys in it, off the bridge, they heard a yell from beneath.

They called for a helicopter from nearby Commodore Helicopters Inc., and asked firemen to provide high-powered lights.

Pilots Robert Hallbeck and Donald Cronin took to the air and maneuvered around the pilings at low altitude for nearly an hour before they spotted a man clinging to a piling.

Thinking their job finished, the pilots landed while volunteers Charles Yancy and Robert Dalton of the Sheriff's Marine Patrol took a small boat out to pick up the man. In the fog, however, they lost sight of him.

Once again, the helicopter went up. After another 15 minutes of circling the mud flats, the fliers saw Haber standing in the water. This time, the boat reached him.

"I just wanted to go for a swim," proclaimed the wet but uninjured Haber.

After a checkup at Marin General Hospital, he was taken to Napa State Hospital for psychiatric observation.

He Walks Away From Accident

Elmo A. Sasselli, 21, of 80 Mohawk Avenue, Corte Madera, suffered scrapes on his right arm and leg when his motorcycle turned over and slid into an oncoming car on Edgewood Drive near Castle Drive, west of Mill Valley, at 6:20 p.m. Saturday.

The California Highway Patrol said Sasselli's cycle crossed the center of the road and hit a car driven by Dorothy G. Schmitz, 42, of San Francisco.

Sasselli declined to seek emergency medical treatment.

Hit-Run Victim Remains 'Poor'

Robert G. Miller, 12, of 30 Corte Loyola, Greenbrae, remained in the intensive care unit at Marin General Hospital in poor condition today, suffering from multiple injuries suffered when he was struck by a car Thursday.

John P. Lee, 34, of 501 Oak Avenue, San Anselmo, who has been charged with hitting the young bicyclist on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard near La Cuesta Drive, Greenbrae, and with felony drunken driving, was scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon.

RISKY BUSINESS—San Rafael firemen atop long ladder pour water into fire in "the Pines," during battle to keep blaze in the structure—more than 80 years old—from spreading to trees and nearby city library. A volunteer in on the ladder holding the hose.

quick call for demolition bids during a city council budget session on June 30, he declared, "I'm just afraid we're going to have a fire in one of those before we get them out of there."

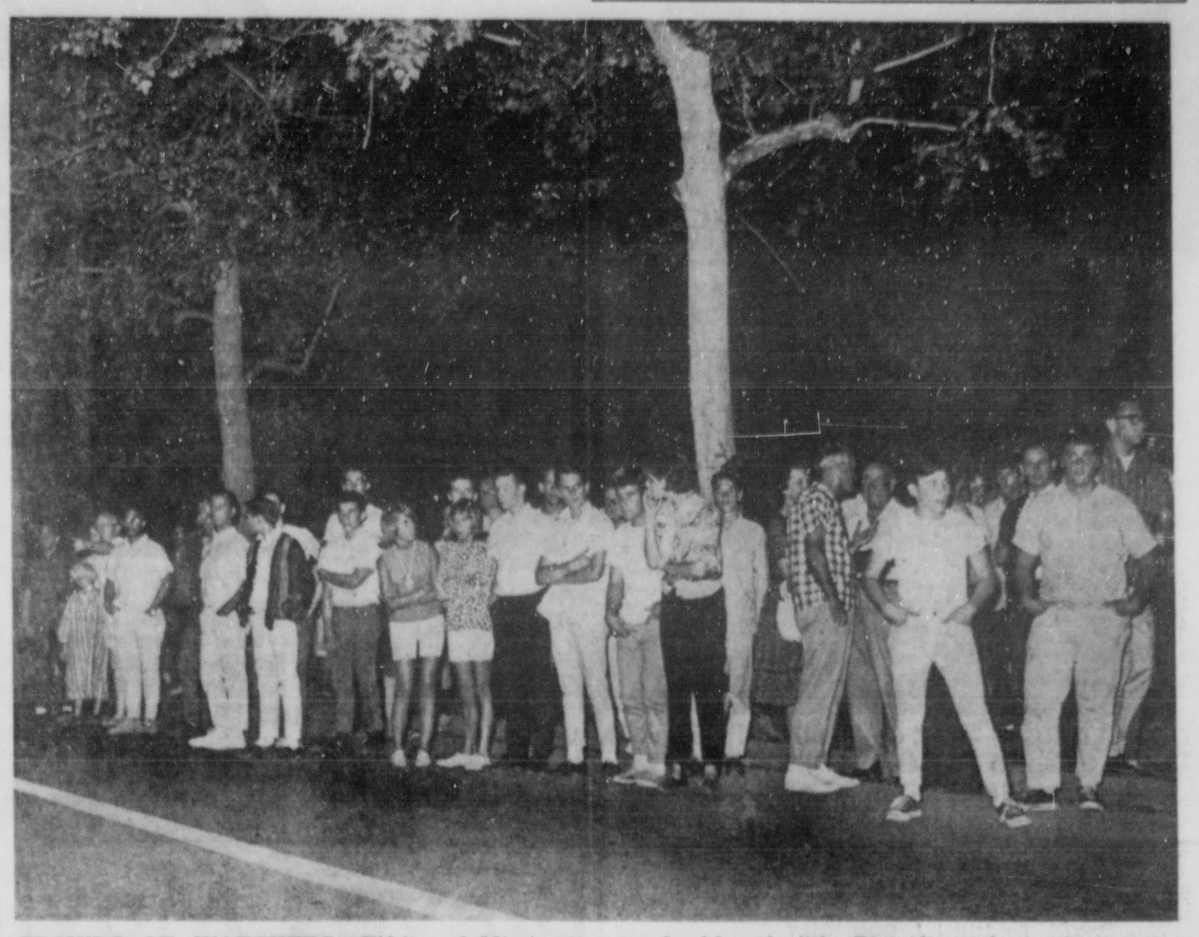
Yesterday, he added, "I'll be glad when they are all down."

The city purchased the property from Mrs. Marie S. Robinson, divorced wife of Dr. Louis Lustre Robinson, last year for $161,000. It had been through many ownerships.

Smith, the original owner, sold it to Henry P. Wood, whose son, Parker Wood, curator of the Marin County Historical Society museum, recalled today that one of the four big pine trees fell on the house when he was a boy there. The tree smashed one corner, and this was replaced with a round tower that became one of the building's most notable features.

The Katharine Branson School was started in "The Pines," moving later to San Anselmo and then to its present site in Ross. Attorney James W. Cochrane, whose brother, Michael, was publisher of the San Rafael Independent, owned the house for many years.

For some years prior to its purchase by the city, it had been a cheap lodging house. What had once been closets had been converted into sleeping rooms. A ballroom that once occupied the entire third floor had been split into many small rooms.



CROWDS OF WATCHERS—Fifth and Mission avenues in San Rafael were lined until after midnight Saturday with hundreds watching the spectacular blaze in "the Pines," onetime mansion at 1404 Fifth Avenue. This is part of the Mission Avenue crowd. (Independent-Journal photos)

A northbound car driven by Joanne Shirley Buie, 17, of Petaluma, was forced off Highway 101 near San Jose Boulevard, Novato, hit a mound of dirt, rebounded back into the highway and hit a car driven by Kenneth Raymond Shafer, 51, of 21 Kendrick Drive, San Anselmo.

Mrs. Buie and her son, Gary, six months, were treated for minor injuries at Novato General Hospital and transferred to Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco.

Three members of one family were treated for minor injuries at San Rafael General Hospital yesterday after their car was involved in a three-car rear end accident on Highway 101 at the Irwin Street off-ramp in San Rafael.

Giants Lose Houston Comedy

OUT AT HOME—Giant Orlando Cepeda, trying to get around Colt catcher Jerry Grote, was called out on this third inning play at Houston last night. Cepeda attempted to score from third on a short fly foul to left field, but was thrown out by Al Spangler. (AP Wirephoto)

HOUSTON (AP) — The mystery of the mound has been solved.

But there are darker unknowns perplexing Alvin Dark today than how a reliever gets ejected while taking warm-up pitches.

For instance, how can his San Francisco Giants be one game in first place after losing five out of six to the ninth-place Houston Colts?

During the latest loss — last night by 5-4 — there was more funny stuff on the mound than in the last scene of a Marx Brothers' movie.

In the seventh inning, reliever Bob Shaw surrendered a single to Houston's Jerry Grote and a walk to pitcher Hal Woodeshick with none out.

With left-handed batters Al Spangler and Nellie Fox next up, Dark made the predictable call for southpaw Billy O'Dell.

"After I'd thrown five warm-up pitches, I yelled down to (catcher Tom) Haller, 'I'm going to throw three more strikes, Tom'," O'Dell said afterward.

Umpire Lee Weyer ran to the hill.

"Then when I looked up," O'Dell's account continued, "There was Weyer at my side, shouting: "Don't you tell me to umpire."

The rest of what O'Dell said is of necessity expurgated.

"I don't get it. So I tell him to get back behind the plate and leave me alone. Then he threw me out."

The next Giant reliever, right-hander Gaylord Perry, sat on the mound and changed his pitching shoes before striking out Al Spangler.

Spangler protested a called third strike and was ejected by umpire Weyer. Weyer, who had a busy night, said "he kicked dirt on my plate."

Weyer tossed out Houston manager Harry Craft at the same time.

Perry then yielded a single to left-handed Nellie Fox, which tied the game 4-4 and gave a preview of Perry's downfall two innings later.

Fox drove in the winning run with two down in the ninth with his third single, scoring Eddie Kasko.

Jim Duffalo started the Giants' merry mound play when he relieved starter Ron Herbel in the sixth. After uncorking a wild pitch, Duffalo hit the first batter he faced. Dark brought in Shaw.

Tonight Dark sends southpaw Bob Hendley (8-5) in against Hector Harold Brown, known better as Skinny Brown, a nemesis for the Giants despite a 1-8 record this season.

The Giants got nothing more from the latest loss to Houston than 11 hits—10 of them singles.

Jesus Alou, Willie Mays, Jim Hart and Orlando Cepeda each got two hits. Alou got the extra-base blow — a double in the seventh. Mays singled him home and that made it 4-3 Giants for a while.

Giants Ready For Their Big Move? Why Ball Players Dislike Umpires

CONNOLLY

This could be it—the belated beginning of a Giant batting surge that could very well carry them to a National League title. It was a long time coming and it took a four game winning streak over the Chicago Cubs plus a long expected tail-spin of the Phils to turn the trick.

For the first time the Giants are showing a bit of their "awesome power." Instead of playing it singly, the whole Giant club got "hot" at once and with everybody hitting it was no trick for them to catch skeptics off stride and move into first place in the pennant race.

At Chicago the "book" called for the Giants to roll over and play dead. When it didn't happen, it gave great hope for better times being in store for San Francisco fans.

There isn't any explanation why the Giants should act so bushy against the medicore clubs and so nifty (most of the time) against the better teams. But one thing was certain—had it continued it would have been fatal.

Last night's defeat by Houston is another example of how and why ball players take a dislike to all umpires. More guys in blue like Lee Weyer and the umpires never will be admitted to the ball players pension fund. From a long distance slant at the ump's decision it seems like he went out of his way to banish Bill O'Dell, even before the relief pitcher had a chance to perform.

UMPIRES WHO can't take a tongue lashing belong in other climes than in baseball. And the sooner the league prexy informs his umps of this, the better off baseball will be. Most of the complaints against poor umpiring this year has centered around the "rabbit ear type"—meaning an ump who can hear a pin drop in the pitchers' box while he is hugging first base.

Tonight the finale of the Houston series occurs and then the Giants hike over to Milwaukee for a three-game joust before coming back Friday night to Candlestick Park, again with Houston and to be followed by a repeat four games series with the Cubs.

THE BIG challenge for the Giants follows this seven game home stand when they are slated to play 18 games in foreign parks. This long road trip could come pretty close to settling, once and for all, the chances of S.F. winning another pennant. In this 18 game trip the Giants have 3 with L.A.; 3 with the Phils; 4 with Pittsburgh; 2 with the Mets; 3 with Cincy and 3 with St. Louis, before they come home to roost against the Braves.

Garry Schumacher, Giants' public relation tycoon just back from the All-Star game, issues word that Jack Sanford, Giant pitcher, may be sidelined for quite a spell. Tests are being conducted now and will be for the next week. If it is decided that surgery is needed, it would certainly mean the withdrawal of Sanford for the balance of the year.

"MANAGER DARK was worried all along about Sanford pitching with his arm ailment, but the guy wanted to test it for sure," explains Schumacher, "so now he is convinced his suspicions were not unfounded. I think Sanford may be able to overcome the handicap and get back sooner but we're preparing for the worst."

Braves Moving...North; Phillies Fading

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Milwaukee Braves are moving — but in a northerly direction.

Rumored to be headed to Atlanta and subjected to some caustic comments about their talents, the Braves ignored the former and answered the latter yesterday by continuing their sudden climb up the National League standings into fifth place.

The Braves, bogged down in ninth place two weeks ago, made it 11 victories in their last 15 games by sweeping a doubleheader from Philadelphia 4-3 and 6-2, knocking the Phillies into second place behind San Francisco.

The Braves' latest outburst came just two days after the Milwaukee County board chairman, Eugene Grobschmidt, fired a verbal broadside at the players, charging they were "definitely capable of playing better baseball.

"There's something funny going on," said Grobschmidt. "The fans are doing their part but the players are in a slump. Something's happening."

Something's happening all right — Hank Aaron has been laying the groundwork for the Braves' streak with some amazing stickwork.

2,000TH HIT

The slugging outfielder collected four hits against the Phillies—including No. 2,000 of his career—and extended his hitting string to 16 games. During that stretch, Aaron has driven in 17 runs while hitting at a .394 clip and lifting his average to .312—sixth best in the league.

The Phillies, meanwhile, lost their fourth straight and again changed places with San Francisco in the tight pennant struggle.

The Giants moved one game out front despite losing to Houston 5-4 in a weird game in which San Francisco reliever Billy O'Dell was ejected before throwing a pitch and Gaylord Perry took over, then proceeded to change his shoes while sitting on the pitchers' mound.

Elsewhere, the New York Mets swept a doubleheader for the first time in more than a year by beating Cincinnati 1-0 and 5-1 while the Chicago Cubs downed Los Angeles 6-3 before the Dodgers won the nightcap 6-2 with a six-run ninth inning explosion—equalling their biggest inning of the season.

The St. Louis at Pittsburgh doubleheader was rained out.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox swept Kansas City 3-1 and 11-4 and the Los Angeles Angels edged Minnesota twice 2-1 and 3-2 in 10 innings. The others split, Boston beating Washington 5-3 before the Senators won 10-3 and Baltimore defeating Detroit 4-2 before the Tigers came back for a 4-3, 10-inning victory.

TIE GAME

The New York Yankees and Cleveland played to a 2-2 tie in a game halted by rain after 6½ innings.

The Braves jumped on Chris Short in the opener for all their runs in the fourth inning. Aaron drove in the first two with a single and Gene Oliver's double brought home another pair.

Aaron doubled and scored the Braves' first run in the nightcap and drove in the second with a single, his 2,000th hit. Eddie Mathews contributed a homer and double while reliever Billy Hoeft checked the Phillies on three hits for seven innings.

Galen Cisco of the Mets won a battle of six-hitters with the Reds' Joey Jay in the opener when New York scored the game's only run in the ninth inning on consecutive doubles by George Altman and Joe Christopher.

METS SWEEP

The Mets wrapped up their first doubleheader sweep since June 23, 1963, as Ron Hunt collected three hits, including a homer, and drove in three runs in the nightcap. Frank Lary got the victory, his first as a National Leaguer.

The Cubs won the opener with a four-run ninth capped by Billy Williams' homer. Williams' 21st homer, off Ron Perranoski, was the only hit of the inning and followed a two-out error by Nate Oliver.

Ernie Broglio, looking for his first victory as a Cub, had a four-hit shutout going into the nightcap ninth when the Dodgers struck. Tommy Davis' bases loaded single tied the game and Ron Fairly scored the lead run on Frank Howard's infield out.

Two Marin Drivers Score Cotati Wins

Walt Benson of Sausalito and Bob O'Brien of Tiburon were among the winners yesterday at the Pacific Coast Championship sports car races at the Cotati Raceway.

Benson, driving a Porsche, was second overall in the second race for Class E and F production cars; and O'Brien raced his Cooper to a Libre Class victory in the fourth race, for Formula Junior and Libre sports cars.

Chuck Parsons of Monterey, driving an AC Cobra, won the A and B Production race with an average speed of 75.2 miles per hour. Bart Martin of Hayward won the feature race for all modified cars with an average speed of 78.2 miles per hour over the 2.4-mile, seven-turn course.

It was the fourth straight feature victory for Martin who was behind the wheel of a Grizzly Engineering Cooper-Chevvie.

Other winners included Dan Parkinson of LaCanada in Class G and H Production and H modified; Walt Maas of Mountain View in Class E and F Production; Jim Adams of Hollywood in Class C and D Production; Alson Brizard of Livingston in Formula Junior and Libre, and Walt Gish, in the special Formula Vee division.

Snead World Champ

WESTWORTH, England—Sam Snead defeated Syd Scott of England 7 and 6 over the weekend in their 36-hole match for the unofficial world senior pro championship.

LEMA RATES BRITISH WIN HIS GREATEST

NEW YORK (AP) — Tony Lema, winner of the British Open golf championship, arrived from Paris yesterday still calling the triumph his greatest achievement.

"The prize money was worth only $4,200 but it is worth a million dollars in prestige," said Lema, who was accompanied by his business manager Fred Corcoran.

Lema and Corcoran visited Paris after the British Open and were guests of the Duke of Windsor.

"The duke was very charming and we split a bottle of champagne," said Tony, who traditionally serves the beverage after each of his victories.

The new British Open champion will leave today for Columbus, Ohio, to play in the National PGA tournament opening Thursday.

SEMI PRO BASEBALL HIGHLIGHTS

B-H Builders Overcome 7-0 Deficit, Remain Undefeated

Highlights from yesterday's Marin County Semi-Pro Baseball League games:

DeMaestri's Fairfax Garage baseballers gave league-leading Billings-Hutchison Builders a scare before succumbing 11-8 at Albert Park, San Rafael.

Fairfax scored seven runs in the first four innings to take a 7-0 lead. But a six-run rally in the fifth inning and another rally for three more in the sixth put the B-H nine in front to stay.

Leading the Fairfax batters were John Odetto with four consecutive singles, Hamish Tyler with a long two-run double and a 365-foot triple, and Vince Pallavicini with a triple and single.

Winning pitcher Bob DeRosa was working in relief of starter Paul Chaffee and brother Jerry DeRosa. It was Bob's fourth straight league win. Ernie DeMattei had a home run for the Builders who collected a total of 11 hits, the same number as Fairfax.

Mill Valley Wins In 11th

It took 11 innings, but the Mill Valley Merchants nipped the Novak Builders 6-5 yesterday in Novato to remain in the thick of the battle for the championship.

Mill Valley, with a 3-1 record, trails the Billings-Hutchison Builders (5-0) by one and one-half games.

The Novato team was leading 4-1 until the top of the ninth inning when Ed Vigno knocked in three runs with a bases-loaded single to put Mill Valley even at 4-4. Mill Valley added another run to go ahead, but Novak

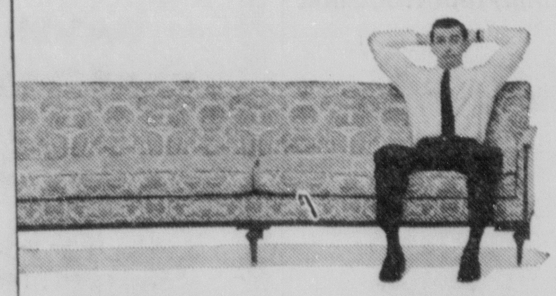
Will an Opel Station Wagon carry a 9-foot couch?

No. But buy the Opel anyway. With the money you save, you can buy three 4-foot love seats. You can carry them one at a time (if you must); you'll have three extra feet of couch. And love seats are friendlier, anyway. (So are Opel Station Wagons.)



Behind the driver's seat in an Opel Station Wagon, you'll find a cheerful 50.27 cu. ft. of fresh air—good for carrying just about anything, within reason. In front of the driver's seat is a tough little 46 hp engine that goes big distances on little gas. Beneath the driver's seat is a special suspension system too intricate to explain, here. (It's a honey.) And a chassis that has no lube points and never needs lubrication. It all comes in a stylish, efficient German design that makes people stop and admire. (Parking? Little Opel rushes in where big cars fear to tread. And couldn't if they tried.) Now. If the three love seats you bought aren't enough, remember the pull-up back seat in your Opel wagon. You can take your wife and a portable phonograph somewhere; park and hold hands in the moonlight. Very friendly. Come on in and see us about it. We're pretty friendly, too.

BARBER SHAVES VENTURI IN ROUND ROBIN GOLF

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP)—The pro golfing tourists shake the arithmetic out of their brains and move into Columbus today for the PGA Championship but they'll leave behind their latest tournament winner Miller Barber.

The paunchy, 32-year-old Texarkansas, Ark., pro, who beat out National Open Champion Ken Venturi for the $5,000 first prize in the Wykagyl Round Robin, isn't eligible for the pros' private tee party, starting Thursday.

He is two weeks shy in completing the five-year apprenticeship.

"I'll get a crack at them next year," said Barber, celebrating his biggest tournament triumph.

The bespectacled former assistant pro, on the tour less than two years, staged a rally to overtake the front-running Venturi in the 90-hole, four-day mathematical monstrosity played over the Wykagyl Country Club course.

Barber wound up with a total of 31 plus points—one better than Venturi.

Venturi made a game try at throwing the event into a sudden death playoff when he hit an iron approach to within 12 feet of the club on the 487-yard, par five closing hole and almost sank for an eagle.

But he didn't and when Fred Hawkins, playing in the same foursome, sank a 10-foot putt to tie him on the hole, the victory went to Barber.

UNIQUE EVENT

In this unique event, every player opposes each of the others in the field on a head-to-head, match play basis over a period of four days. Points are awarded for holes won and subtracted for holes lost.

Medal scores, the determining factor in most other tournaments, mean nothing.

For instance, Tommy Bolt hammered out the best medal score of the weekend—73-70-66-70-72—351, nine under par. Venturi and Barber each shot 354.

Yet Bolt finished in a tie for fifth behind Barber, Venturi, Dave Marr, plus 23 and Gene Littler, plus 16. Bolt and Bob Rosburg were at plus 15, followed by Bill Collins, plus 14 and Hawkins, plus 13.

All others were on the minus side—Tommy Aaron, minus one; George Bayer, minus five; Tommy Jacobs, minus six; Johnny Pott, minus 20; Bob Watson, minus 28; Jim Ferree, minus 30; Tom Nieporte, minus 32 and Jimmy Demaret, minus 35.

Mickey Wright Wins Women's Nat'l Open

SAN DIEGO, (AP) — Mickey Wright, undisputed queen of the gal golfers, owns the United States Women's Open Golf championship for an unprecedented fourth time.

Blonde Mickey from Dallas defeated blonde Ruth Jessen from Seattle in an 18-hole playoff yesterday for the USGA title, shooting a 3-under par 70 to her opponent's 72 over San Diego Country Club's sun-drenched par 36-37—73 course.

The pair had finished even at 290, two under par, at the end of the regulation 72 holes Saturday.

The finale was pammed with tension. At one stage it was possible for a three or four-way tie, with only a couple of holes to play. Mickey finished with a 73, Miss Jessen a 71.

As it developed, Shirley Englehorn, 23, of Los Angeles, and Marilyn Smith, Colorado Springs, each with a 74, tied at 291.

Runners-up included Sandra Haynie, 295; Peggy Wilson, 296; Joann Prentice and Marlene Bauer Hagge, 298, and Kathy Whitworth, 300.

Barbara McIntire, Colorado Springs, won amateur laurels with 304.

RECORD — Janell Snith of Fredonia, Kan. set American record of 54.7 seconds for 400-meter run in National AAU Women's Track and Field Championships at Hanford over weekend. (AP Wirephoto)

Mill Valley Wins It In Top Of 11th Frame

got it back in the bottom of the frame to knot the score at 5-5.

The Merchants won the game in the top of the 11th when catcher Roy Giusti tripled and then scored on a throwing error. Merchant pitcher Dave Perlis went all the way on the mound to earn the victory. Reliever Gary Fritz suffered the loss.

Besides making fielding gems, Moran and Kline each had a pair of singles. Chip Collins and Steve Joses supplied key hits for Tiburon.

Losing pitcher Skip Rush allowed only seven hits, but gave up 10 walks, his downfall. He added to his league-leading strikeout total with eight whiffs.

San Anselmo Tops Tiburon

Relief pitcher Don Lowpensky pitched two-hit ball in the last five innings yesterday to lead the San Anselmo Merchants to a 7-5 victory over the Tiburon Sox.

Lowpensky, picking up his first league victory, was helped by sparkling fielding plays from third baseman Mike Moran and shortstop Larry Kline. Hank Ryan's two-run single in the bottom of the eighth inning was the big blow of the game, puting the Merchants in front after they had trailed 5-4 going into the inning at Memorial Park, San Anselmo.

Two Hits By Beswick In 'Star' Game

The Northern California All-Stars defeated the San Francisco stars 5-1 yesterday in the Examiner Baseball All-Star Game yesterday at Big Rec's Graham Field in S.F.

Jeff Finley, a Los Altos right-handed pitcher, and Ron Fasler, centerfielder from Sacred Heart in San Francisco, were chosen to represent the San Francisco Examiner in the Hearst Sandlot Classic in Yankee Stadium on Aug. 19.

Dave Beswick, who played left field yesterday but who starred last season as a pitcher for the Marin Catholic High School baseball team, collected two singles in two trips to the plate for the Norcal team.

Marin Softballers Win Santa Rosa Tourney Openers

Sohner Tree Service and Fairchild remain undefeated in the District Finals of the State Softball Championship as both Marin entries notched opening-round victories in Santa Rosa.

Fairchild blanked Lucky 7, 3-0, Saturday and Sohner trimmed Stevenson Equipment, 4-1, last night.

Fairchild meets Windsor Merchants at 6:45 tonight while Sohner will tangle with Blood Bank Wednesday.

The Sohner victory was paced by Joe Bauer's three hits and Earl Loew's two-hit pitching.

Stevenson's lone run was unearned, thus giving Loew a string of 61 innings with only one earned run allowed.

Hurling the shutout for Fairchild was ace righthander Bob Brown.

Ron Cole Pitches Modesto Victory

Ron Cole of Mill Valley, pitching for the Modesto Colts of the California League, spread out 10 hits over seven innings but allowed only two runs as the Colts defeated San Jose 6-2 in the first game of a twin bill yesterday.

Cole had a shutout going until the bottom of the seventh when he allowed the two runs. San Jose won the second game 2-1.

YACHTING ROUNDUP

Marin Women 2d In Adams Racing

A women's team from the Belvedere Sailing Society qualified for the Pacific Coast eliminations of the 1964 Adams Cup North American Women's Sailing Championship after taking runner-up honors in the Bay Area eliminations this past weekend.

It was really close between the Belvedere club and the winning group from the Richmond Yacht Club and wasn't decided until a race committee hearing of two and one-half hours. Each of the clubs protested the other because of a ruffing situation shortly after the start of the last race on Richardson Bay.

After Belvedere's charge was disallowed, Richmond was given the series victory by the slimmest of margins, 25¼ to 24¼.

Captain of the Belvedere team was Sally Mathews who had a crew consisting of Nancy Rogers and Barbara Healy. The Richmond Y.C. representatives were captain Jocelyn Nash and crew members Barbara Hayward and Elva Benone.

The two clubs will compete in the Pacific Coast eliminations Aug. 5 through 7 on the San Francisco Bay, leading to the finals at Lake Geneva, Wis., during the last week in August.

The Bay Area races for Rhodes-19 sloops were sponsored by the San Francisco Yacht Club of Belvedere. Following the first two winners were:

University of California Y.C., 22¼; San Francisco Y.C., 19½; Palo Alto Y.C., 15 6/10; and Golden Gate Y.C., 14.

L. K. JORDAN III of the Tiburon Y.C. placed second in the Melody Class of the Small Boat Racing Assn. Division Three meet yesterday at the Richmond Y.C.

Gusts of wind almost 20 knots per hour caused many broken sails and masts during the racing for the small boats.

HENRY SPRAGUE of the Newport Harbor Y.C. in Southern California won the St. Francis Y.C.-Zellerbach heavy weather Finn Class yacht title on the San Francisco Bay over the weekend.

Sprague won four of the five races in the two-day series to win handily.

Eagle Goes For 12th Straight Win

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—American Eagle, unbeaten thus far in the America's Cup Trials, sought a 12th straight victory today after showing her sails to a rival U.S. yacht and the crew of a British Cup candidate yesterday on foggy Rhode Island Sound.

Eagle, a new, 12-meter vessel sponsored by the New York Yacht Club Committee and skippered by Bill Cox of Rarien, Conn., met Columbia, the West Coast contender, in the fifth race of the current series to determine a defender against Britain in September.

Cox's swift boat defeated Nefertiti by 4 minutes, 23 seconds yesterday over the 24-mile windward-leeward course while crewmen from the British yacht Sovereign looked on. Sovereign is one of two British contenders competing for the challenger's spot in the Cup races. The victory was Eagle's fourth in the current series and 11th since the trials began last month.

Columbia, with Walter Podolak of Newport Beach, Calif., at the helm, won for the first time in New England waters, outdistancing winless Easterner by 6 minutes, 26 seconds in 6-8 knot southerly breezes.

Easterner went against Constellation, the second 1964-built New York entry, in today's other race.

Nefertiti, runer-up in the trials a year ago, is idle. She has won two of four races in the series. Constellation has lost only to American Eagle in four starts; Columbia is 1-3 and Easterner 0-4.

The series will continue through July 18, with the yachts being paired according to their performances the previous day.

Final trials are slated to begin Aug. 17, with the winner facing either Soverign or Kurrewa V in the Cup competition Sept. 24-26.

U.S. Gals 'Ready' For Top Effort Vs. Russ

HANFORD (AP) — America's oft-maligned track and field lassies aim for their best showing against the Russians after a weekend of record breaking in their AAU championships.

Of the 13 events on the AAU senior program, seven had new records today and two of the established marks were equalled.

Now the national team members open training at the same Hanford High School track for their meeting in Los Angeles against the USSR women, July 25-26.

They vow a better showing than in 1963 at Moscow when they didn't win a single first place and were overwhelmed 75-28.

Rosie Bonds of Pasadena, who successfully defended her 80-meter hurdles title with an American citizen's record of 10.8 seconds, declared, "I think we'll do well this time. Several of us gained experience last year and I know that will help me. I was so scared in the Moscow meet that I tightened up.

"This year I'm ready."

BLANKET FINISH

In addition to winning the hurdles, the 20-year-old Rosie also placed third in the blanket finish 100 meter dash when the four leaders all matched the meet record of 11.5 seconds with Wyomia Tyus of Tennessee State the winner.

Events for the Russian meet are the 100 and 200-meter dashes, 800-meter hun, 80- meter hurdles, 400-meter relay, javelin throw, discus throw, shot put, broad jump and high jump.

America never has won the women's duel since the USSR series was inaugurated in 1958 and again the Russians will be favored. But not by one-sided odds.

Winners of the weekend meet at Hanford:

100-meter dash—Wyomia Tyus, Tennesse State, 11.5.
200-meter dash — Edith McGuire, Tennessee State, 23.6.
400-meter run — Janell Smith, Fredonia, Kans., 54.7.
800-meter run—Sandra Knott, Cleveland, Ohio, 2:10.4.
80-meter hurdles — Rosie Lee Bonds, Pasadena, 10.8.
400-meter relay — Compton, 47.2.
800-meter medley — Oakland Oakettes, 1:45.5.
Shot put — Earlene Brown, Compton, 46-11.
Discus — Olga Connolly, Los Angeles, 158-4.
Javelin — RaNae Bair, San Diego, 173-4½.
High jump — Eleanor Montgomery, Cleveland, 5-8⅛.
Broad jump — Willye White, Chicago, 21-1.

It seems to me . . .

How Blight Is Our Valley

It has been said by a poet more skillful of word-manipulation than I, that beauty is in the eyes of the beholder. Paraphrasing this thought in our Marin setting, we might say, rather cleverly, and with purpose, some folk see only what they want to see. And some will see only that which is in the direct line of their personal stove-pipe vision range, or that which is directed to their attention. We do have an assortment of non-wood Charlie McCarthys around, you know.

It is not my forte to wax poetic. I prefer bluntness. The fuzzy-thinkers who expound eloquently and tearfully over the "nasty" sight of Francisco Blvd. and the impression this sight gives the visitor to Marvelous Marin, give me a pain right about here. Between sobs, you get the message they'd like to have both sides of the highway done up in nothing but bucolic splendor, like trees and bushes and stuff like that. No awful people messing up the place earning a living. Got to get that smile of appreciation from the passing tourists. And they will pass—right by, and stop where the non-fuzzy-minded have control and tolerance for tax-producing-and-paying enterprises.

Oh, but the mind of the would-be beautifier is an intricate mechanism! It enables the owner to become terribly offended at the sight of a sign, because it has lights which scintillate in two colors! This specially equipped mind then preversely permits this impractical visionary to block out the sight of utility poles, placed with monotonous regularity every hundred feet or so along both sides of the highway.

Now, here's a sight any layman can describe as "ugly." You don't have to be a poet to cringe at the offensive spectacle of tar-smeared monstrosities, strung together, and each bearing its burden of cancerous clusters of out-sized transformers. Would the tourists whose aesthetic sensitivities are subjects of concern glow radiantly over a garden paradise approach to San Rafael, if this dream garden was still over-run with massive wooden weeds 60 feet high? Hardly.

While we're worrying about the tourists, why not give some deep thought to the elimination of the deadly San Rafael overpass? Like right now. Or, does the fuzzy mind require a few more years of discussions and debates? There can't be considerations of beautification involved in this project. Elimination of the ghastly sight of mangled cars and bodies should be incentive enough, even for the most impractical.

Doug Cowan and I are interested in operating Ames Ford in a manner calculated to bring a reasonable profit to us, a good livlihood to some 55 men and women and their families a substantial purchaser of local goods and services, and a not-insignificant tax producer. And we want to do all this in a manner designed to gain the confidence and acceptance of as many people in Marin County as possible. We keep no soap boxes on our premises, and we espouse no causes, since we feel opinions are private and sacred.

These observations are made, therefore, not in the interests of controversy, but, rather as an open-letter defense against isolated, but irritating opposition to virtually every step of our planning and building the present Ames Ford building, lot and surrounding area. The opposition was especially irritating in the face of our determination to create a pleasing-to-the-eye structure, which would and does provide the best looking area along the approach to San Rafael.

Being practical, progressive, and aggressive by nature, Doug Cowan and I are understandably sensitive toward impractical and unrealistic approaches in any form. Selling the Total Performance line of Fords—incidently, in ever-increasing numbers—at Ames Ford, we are not amused at the spectacle of any string-puller bicycling through the jet age.

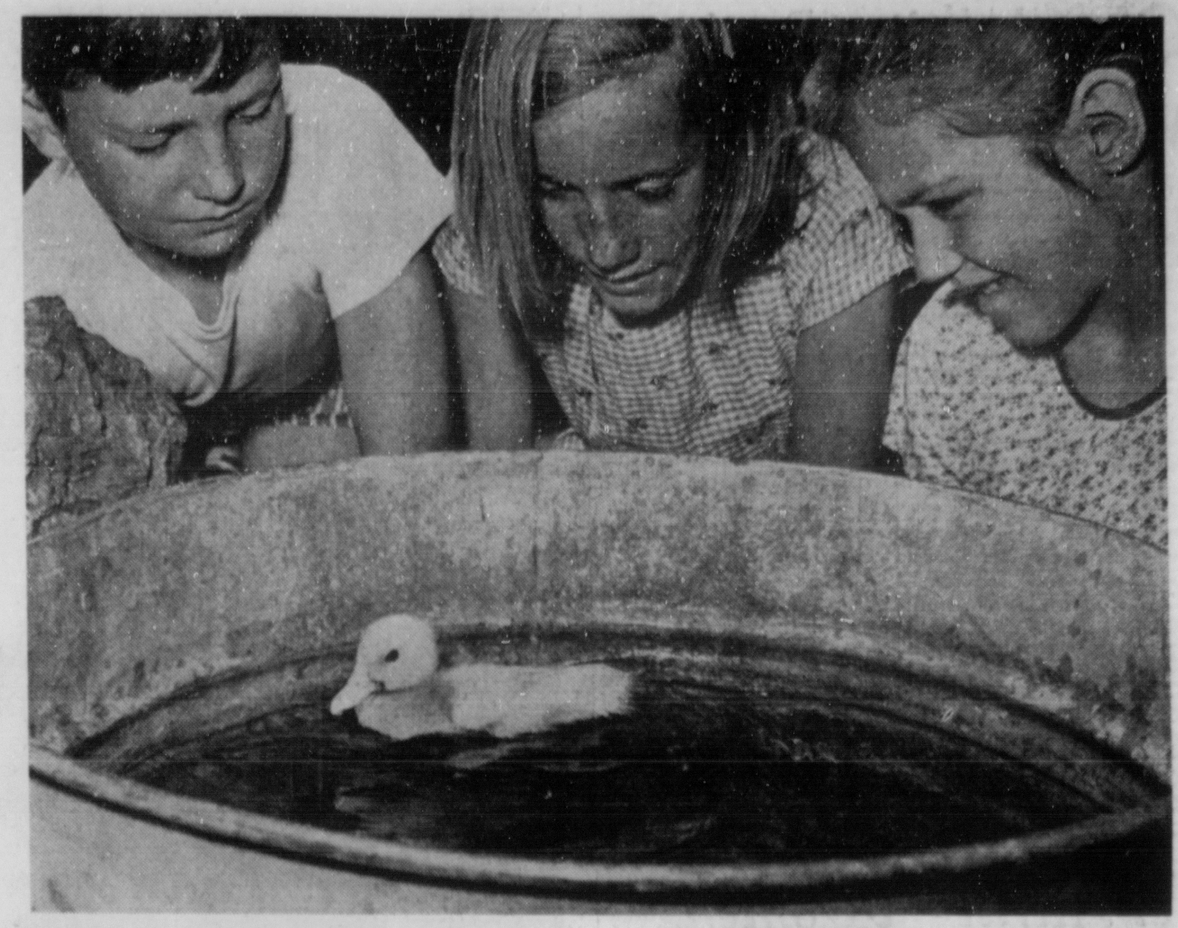
DOING THEIR BEST to make friends with "Bessie," a sheltie, at the FYT Primary School summer classes in Larkspur are, from left, Robie Springer and Chester Reiland. Holding the pooch for the little boys to pet is Holly Mensing. Enabling children to get first hand experience dealing with natural phenomenon is the purpose of the school's class in science and nature study. (Independent-Journal photos by Jim Kean)



"WELL, HELLO DOLLY," say students, from left, Gordon Springer, Milly Mensing and Susan Bergeron. The little duck, which the children have named "Dolly" is too busy concentrating on his aquatic prowess.

GETTING ACQUAINTED with the bluejay while principal and curriculum director Jacky Albright acts as interpreter are Gordon Springer, left, and Eric Barto.

Things Hatching, Hopping For Moppets

WHO WOULDN'T like all this attention wonders "Dear" deer as FYT students Cathy Bergeron, left, and Julie Mensing make him a pushover. Classes in science and nature study are but one phase in the summer program at the Larkspur school.

Things are really hatching and hopping at the FYT (Formative Years Training) Primary school summer classes in Larkspur where the moppets are helping to raise magpies, partridges, pheasants, a bluejay, a duck named "Dolly" and "Dear" deer.

The summer classes also include an extensive course which incorporates and integrates French, drama, puppetry and music with numbers, colors and music theory. In addition there are arts and crafts projects.

Most important, however, to principal and curriculum director Jacky Albright, are the first hand experiences dealing with natural phenomenon which the children receive in the science and nature study classes.

Jacky Albright feels that by learning about an animal or birds habits, their emotional makeup and the best way to get them to become friendly, a child learns a valuable lesson in life . . . that there exists a correlative between animals and children.

Thus, FYT children begin learning to read early when subject matter incorporates reading with nature study. "In this day and age," says Jacky, "children are more interested in reading and learning about ants, dinosaurs and a trip to the moon than about dogs, cats and a trip to the farm." Consequently, students in her school will be able to enjoy a pre-primer in the summer school program. It is a self-teaching story book about a brontosaurus dinosaur.

The couple was accompanied by Arthur Nielsen of Mill Valley and Miss Mary McGinty of San Francisco. The bride wore a beige silk suit with pink accessories.

The new Mrs. Murphy came to Mill Valley as a young girl, attended schools there, including Tamalpais High School, and was graduated from Los Angeles High School. She attended the University of Southern California and Chouinard School of Art in Los Angeles.

Mr. Murphy has served 20 years in the U.S. Army and is now in the reserve with a rank of major.

The couple will live in Mill Valley.

Ruffles Are Back On Child Clothes

Ruffles on children's clothes went out of style with cheap household help. Practical mothers did not spend a better part of their days bent over a hot ironing board when they could press something flat and simple in a few minutes.

Ruffles are back, though, and this time in surprising striped shirting materials usually reserved for strictly tailored dresses. They never would have been, however, if textile chemistry had not discovered wash and wear fabrics.

CARMEL PRESBYTERIAN Church was the setting for the wedding of Susan Silvernale and Palle C. Drescher, attended by family members only. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Silvernale of San Rafael. The couple met in Denmark where Susan was a student and the bridegroom has been living in Petaluma the past year, where the couple is now making their home.

SUMMER HEALTH

Tips For Carefree Vacations

NEW YORK (UPI)—Make vacation time a carefree one by following these simple rules for summer health:

—Avoid accidents, avoid infections, protect yourself against allergic reactions, avoid overexertion and overexposure, avoid insect bites, use common sense.

How does one avoid accidents? Don't swim out too far, for example. Don't drive until your eyes glaze with fatigue. Don't attempt feats beyond your skill or strength.

PROPER EQUIPMENT is another safeguard against accidents. Stock the boat with life preservers, one for each passenger. Wear boots in snake country.

Proper equipment means also the right non-slip boots when climbing. And it means knowledge.

For example, learn how to resuscitate the drowning the recommended mouth-to-mouth way. Know what to do for patients in shock.

WHEN PACKING vacation gear, remember a well-stocked personalized first-aid kit. Personalized means it should contain medicines you or any member of your family must take regularly—particularly prescription drugs.

Take along the prescription for glasses worn by you or any member of the family, if you can't take along an extra pair of glasses.

MAKE A RESOLUTION, meanwhile, to keep the sun your friend instead of an enemy of pleasure. The first exposure should not exceed 20 minutes—10 for children and light-haired adults.

Gradually increase the length of sunbaths. But three straight hours in the sun are quite enough even after you've acquired a good tan. Use skin lotion, baby oil, or sun-tan lotion to further reduce negative effects of sun.

HEAT PROSTRATION — sunstroke—is something else to worry about.

(Next: Food poisoning and other summer infections.)

Miss Mendez Is Bride Of David Regal

Helen Elizabeth Mendez of Mill Valley became the bride of David Lawrence Regal of Daly City Saturday in a nuptial mass at Mission San Rafael Arcangel.

The double ring ceremony was performed at noon by the Rev. John F. McCarthy.

When the bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Mendez of Mill Valley, was given in marriage by her father, she was wearing a full length gown of Chantilly lace trimmed white peau de soie with court train.

Sybil Cobb of Mill Valley, maid of honor, and Mrs. Frank Ginn of San Diego, bridesmaid, wore full length gowns of yellow crepe in empire style. The bride's two 6-year-old nieces, Susan Marie Mendez of Corte Madera and Gail Elizabeth Smith of Oakland, were the flower girls. Their dresses were like those of the attendants.

Steve Prior of San Francisco was best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Regal of Daly City. Ushers were David's younger brother, Charles Regal, Mark Gattungs and Frank Billa, both of San Francisco.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony, and the young couple left for a honeymoon at an undisclosed destination. They will live in San Francisco.

The new Mrs. Regal was graduated from Marin Catholic High School and attended the College of Marin. She is the sister of Mrs. Lewis F. Smith of Oakland and Frank J. Mendez of Corte Madera.

David was graduated from Westmoor High School and is a senior at San Francisco State College. He is employed as recreation director with the Daly City Recreation Department.

His sisters are Maryanne, Roseanne and AnneMarie Regal, all of Daly City.

Don't tell a soul

Please keep it a secret, but there's a wonderful new place in Honolulu called the Kahala Hilton. A gorgeous estate, right on the beach. Bordered on three sides by the golf course and tennis courts of the Waialae Country Club. It's only 15 minutes from the bustle and bazazz of Waikiki, but hardly anybody's found out about it yet. So be sneaky . . . just steal away from the crowd and be prepared for pampering. Fabulous food, sumptuous suites, superlative service. A wide sweep of coral-free beach. An enormous swimming pool. A lovely lagoon to sip cocktails by. And nobody to bother you.

The cost? Surprisingly low. From $12 a day per person for a double room that's twice as big as normal.

So don't breathe a word. Save it for when you get back and tell your friends what they've missed. They'll hate you.

MAN-TAILORED LOOK

The forecast of how the woman will dress this year goes from the feminine, to that man-tailored look. Sampling some of that tricky tailoring is this dress by Karen Stark for the Harvey Berin collection. The designer created the "deceptive" silhouette by putting styling enough blousing below the waistline to make a one-piece dress look like a two piecer. The slender skirt of the honey brown wool dress is detailed with a welted seam on one side and hidden "pants" pockets. (UPI Telephoto)

Museum Assn. Reception

A reception to honor the board of directors of the Marin Museum Assn. will be held July 22 at the Ross home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Flax. Mrs. Byron Leydecker is chairman.

Sunny Hills Abreast Of Changes In Child Care

The Sunny Hills site in San Anselmo now is being graded and prepared for Marin's pioneer child welfare organization's new home for adolescent children. Which is another example of the foresight and progress of this 70-year-old institution.

Since it opened in 1895 as an orphanage, Sunny Hills has kept abreast of changing conditions in the field of children; trends brought about by legislation and transitions that have evolved in this important welfare field. Now, an independent organization supported by Bay Area residents and organizations and by its historic Grape Festival, Sunny Hills is again entering a new field—as our only non-sectarian institution devoted to the problems of the adolescent child.

Current site preparation will be followed by construction of Sunny Hills Adolescent Children's Home. This will provide accommodation for 40 adolescents, plus administrative facilities for Sunny Hills. Completion is hoped for by next spring.

This will not be just another children's home. It is for adolescents, whom Sunny Hills will prepare for entering an adult world. It will have many programs specifically for adolescents with problems, benefitting the children from all parts of the Bay Area, who are referred to it or directly placed by parents. Additionally, two group residences — one for six boys, one for six girls—will be temporary home during transition from the home to world.

This is in keeping with the Sunny Hills foresight. Sunny Hills was a pioneer in creating the cottage plan for children—now being used all over the nation. It also led in adaptation of proven social service therapy. And as the need for orphanages diminished, it helped parents and children during World War II as a child care center.

Changing times left a vacant place for a determined private agency's resources for the adolescent. Sunny Hills has embarked on its new program—realizing that it faces an even greater responsibility than the normal family home in preparing its youngsters for their place in our society.

Cost of site prepration and the new home is estimated at $650,000 — in case public-spirited Marinites are interested.

'All The World's A Stage'

The Greatest Shows on Earth are commencing in San Francisco this week. Both the Republican Convention there, and the Democratic counterpart later this summer in Atlantic City will be grand examples of showmanship.

They will be geared for television. All the experts from make-up artists to stage directors will be consulted. And we begin to wonder whether the candidates will be nominated for their integrity, principles and intellect, or for their commanding stage presence and acting ability. On the other hand, it is a bit easier to spot a phoney actor when you can see for yourself.

There is a bit of ham in all of us—even those who play the life role of shy introvert. Perhaps that is why we enjoy these spectaculars. There but for a bit of bad luck go I . . . Or good luck, if we find the spectacle displeasing.

Like all good shows, it draws the audience into a sense of participation.

Bracero Ban Hastens Day When Mexico Will Lead Farm Output

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The changing face of California from an underpopulated, rural state to a fast-growing area of more people, more business, more industry and more subdivisions brings up the question of where will the food come from in the future?

For some time, economists have pointed out the removal of prime agricultural land for highways, subdivisions, industries and other purposes than the production of food.

THE RAPIDITY of the transformation causes some to believe that in another couple of generations, agriculture, now the top industry in California, will become a minor factor in the economic life of the state.

The Council of California Growers, an organization devoted to promotion of agricultural interests in this state, points out from extensive reports that one of the answers as to where the food will come from is the addition of more agricultural land in neighboring Mexico to the growing of products to be sold in the United States.

With growing markets for agricultural products, the nation has had no trouble so far in absorbing increased imports from Mexican agricultural areas, and probably will not have for some time to come.

THE COUNCIL of growers uses the situation to show the fallacies of congressional action in eliminating the Mexican labor, or "bracero," program used since the war by California agriculture.

In other words, one of the effects of this action will be to promote greater agricultural production in Mexico in direct competition with California products.

This can result from the fact that the greater marketing demands of the nation will need additional supplies of fruit and produce from some new source. Production in California will be on the decline instead of the increase, although it is not expected to stop. Costs of producing in California in comparison with Mexico are even now so much higher they preclude real competition.

MEXICO IN 14 years has doubled its irrigated acreage, increased agricultural exports by 65 per cent, and rapidly is becoming able to fill the market vacuum for cantaloupes, tomatoes, strawberries and oranges, as well as many other fresh products.

Farm labor in Mexico, statistics show, receives the equivalent of $1.50 per day, while the average wage in California amounts to about $1.33 per hour.

DECLINES IN California production eventually will affect more than the field worker. It will make a big difference, said O. W. Fillerup, executive vice president of the council, to the many thousands of workers employed in agriculture-related industries, which include packing sheds, ice plants, canneries, freezing plants, dehydrators, truck and rail lines.

As the council has pointed out for some time, there is no adequate domestic labor supply to take the place of the bracero. Such supply as is available has been tried and found wanting. Meanwhile, making use of Mexican labor illegal merely hastens the day when agriculture will be of minor importance in California.

She Isn't Happy Over Garden Fair

Editor, Independent-Journal:

It is a shame that the standard of the Marin Art and Garden Fair has hit a new low. This is by far the worst show yet. Something should be done. A complete change in fair management is needed desperately. New ideas, new faces, new judges every year would help bring the standard up to a more interesting and competitive show.

Lack of support by Marin County exhibitors speaks for itself. A survey of all exhibitors past and present would help find out why they do not compete. Do not let is get the reputation of "Not what you know, but who you know."

True, the show will eventually move its location to the new fair grounds, but until it does and as an interested Marinite, I believe the best way to improve the interest in our fair is that the format should be changed to improve the standards of the show to the top flower show it should be, rather than allowing the gradual takeover by commercial interests plus amateurish grading of the various exhibits.

Help In Braille Work Appreciated

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Recently, your Mr. Leibert most generously helped us, cutting cardboard sheets to the proper size for our braille books. We have completed over 75 books . . .

There are 10 of us, who have been doing this for a year, for the blind children in Marin County schools; at the request, and under the guidance of Miss Bosworth, who is teacher to the blind children and teaches braille at College of Marin.

We feel this project would be of interest to the readers of the Independent-Journal, and think that an article describing this work, and its results, might bring in others who would assist us.

We will be very pleased to show you, or your representative, the process and completed books transcribed in braille.

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Now that the supervisors of Marin County, the school trustees, and the town councils have considered it necessary to increase the already comfortable salaries of those under their jurisdiction to meet the increased living cost, would it be out of order to decrease the tax burden on the property owner on fixed income so they too could meet the high cost of living without the suggested tax on property to compensate for the loss of revenue due to the generosity with other people's money, which is the easiest thing in the world to do, and in which these august bodies seem to be doing a superlative job?

Phone Soliciting Bothers Reader

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I wonder how many people, besides me, are feeling victimized by the practice of soliciting business by telephone in Marin. I find myself so indignant at the constant invasion of my privacy by these unwanted calls that I am often rude to the caller, forgetting that he or she is only employed by companies using this unpopular means of promoting business. Feeling as I do, I question if these calls really do provide any business leads, or if the ill will is more lasting.

I have been called in the morning while getting my family off to school and work; in the late afternoon as my beans scorched on the stove; during the evening meal (the one cherished period in the day when even the children's friends don't call!); and during the evening. And what are these vital calls about? I have been offered several dance courses, innumerable magazine subscriptions, fur reglazing, roofing specials, furnace inspection, carpeting, and many more. The callers always ask for me by name, confounding the children who assume the calls are important.

A courteous "Thank you very much but I am not interested" is all that is required, I realize. But how irritating—when you have been called from a steep bank where you have crawled to pull weeds, or from the bathroom, or from a rare quiet conversation with a will-o-the wisp teen-ager.

Surely I am not alone in resenting these intrusions. I watch the I-J ads and rely on my telephone to seek further information. I frequently use the yellow section of my telephone directory to find services and products. I have nothing against the use of the telephone in business. However, I prefer to do the calling myself, at my convenience, for goods and services which I actually require.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

IT IS VERY difficult to police some the giant housing projects that now abound in cities 'round the world. One low-cost development outside of London had so many robberies that the tenants formed their own protective committee, and erected this sign: "Notice to Thieves: You are too late. Early bird miscreants have already purloined from these premises all radio and TV sets in working order, cameras, furs and jewelry. THERE IS NOTHING OF VALUE LEFT TO TAKE."

Three days later somebody stole the sign.

IF A MAN STARTS shaving at the age of sixteen, estimates Arno Karlen, he will scrape away in his lifetime approximately twenty-seven and a half feet of whiskers — about 139 full days of work. Without modern shaving equipment, of course, it took infinitely longer.

GROUCHO MARX recently acquired a brand new poodle, and promptly became very attached to it. "This hound," he told all and sundry with great pride, "is a veritable W-O-N-D-E-R. I'm spelling it out so he won't get conceited."

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

The Sausalito City Council in an explosive meeting voted 4-1, Mayor Sylvester McAtee dissenting, to grant Madden and Lewis, boatbuilders, a new 35-year lease on 11.22 acres of waterfront land.

A Marin County Civic Center with parking space for 1,100 cars could be easily adapted to a 20-acre site adjoining the proposed fairgrounds at Santa Venetia, planning technician Rowland Darnell told the Marin County Planning Commission.

San Rafael Mayor Edward W. Culver, 67, revealed that he was married in a secret ceremony at Kingman, Ariz., to an old sweetheart, Mrs. Alpha Draper, 62.

Architect Henry Schubart Jr. issued a plea "not to study the realignment of Tiburon highway apart from development of the whole peninsula" at a meeting of the Tiburon Property Owners Assn.

A letter from the Marin County Real Estate Board urging the county board of supervisors to authorize a county charter study spurred a dispute between Chairman William D. Fusselman, opposing the plan, and Supervisor Vera Schultz, favoring it. The board took no action.

Three-Way Struggle Underway For GOP Platform Carpenters

SAN FRANCISCO—The controversy over the Republican platform is deadly serious, but it is getting less ferocious all the time.

To understand why the controversy is so sharp and how it will probably be resolved, you need to bear in mind that there are three conflicting forces at this convention and that each wants a different kind of platform for its own reasons:

THE G. O. P. MODERATES — They are the big-state and big-city Republicans whose views are best reflected by Govs. William Scranton and George Romney, Henry Cabot Lodge and Milton Eisenhower, Sens. Hugh Scott and Kenneth Keating and others. The views they represent have controlled every nomination since Herbert Hoover's. Their goals were epitomized by the Eisenhower administration.

They want a Republican platform on civil rights, social welfare and foreign policy which will parallel the voting record of the great majority of Republican Congressmen for the past 12 years.

Their motive is to write a platform which they and right-minded Republican gubernatorial and congressional candidates can best run on and, preferably, so progressive that it would fit only Governor Scranton and make it difficult for Senator Barry Goldwater to accept it.

RIGHT-RIGHT WING—They are the extreme conservatives who want Goldwater nominated because they want to pose the sharpest ideological alternative to the Johnson administration.

They want an uncompromising Goldwater platform because they sincerely believe in the extreme Goldwater conservatism and because they contend the country has come to support his position as against that of most Republican Congressmen on major policy.

Their motive is to write a platform which would fit an uncompromising Goldwater and be unacceptable to the Scranton-Rockefeller-Romney moderates.

GOLDWATER UNIFIERS — Senator Goldwater has put himself at the head of this force. He is prepared to adjust his position so that the convention, as platform chairman Melvin Laird has indicated, can adopt a platform which could justify a Goldwater-Scranton ticket.

They want a platform which will hold the moderates and progressives in line, which will avoid a floor fight, and which will run the least possible risk of doing anything that could undercut any of Goldwater's delegate strength.

Their motive is to unite the party for the campaign.

Normally one would think that, with more than 700 delegates now favoring his nomination, Goldwater could easily work his will on the platform. It is not that simple. While the Scranton-Rockefeller-Romney-Lodge moderates are substantially disunited over the nominee they want, they are substantially united on the policies they want. Although they cannot deny the nomination to Goldwater, their views on the platform cannot be easily shunted aside.

THIS IS WHY Laird is doing his best to maintain the pretense that there are hardly any differences between Goldwater on the one side and the other Republican leaders on the other. That's not true. There are deep differences, but Laird promotes this myth so that the forthcoming compromises can be made to look unimportant.

SENATOR Goldwater is far more flexible than his hard-core conservative supporters. He has passed the word that he is ready to make appreciable concession to the moderates as long as there is no explicit flouting of his views—as, for example, on the constitutionality of the civil rights law.

Goldwater has a good chance of holding the Republican leaders together. Whether he can hold the Republican voters together is another matter.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Dirksen Cooly Eludes LBJ's Cunning Snare

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Senate Republican leader Everett Dirksen, who boasts of being Sen. Barry Goldwater's "political godfather" and who will nominate him at the national convention next week, is still chuckling over a fast one President Lyndon B. Johnson tried to pull on him.

AFTER THE White House signing of the far-reaching civil rights law, the enactment of which Dirksen played a key role, he and the president got to bantering about the fall election battle. Suddenly, the president said wheedlingly:

"Now, Ev, don't you honestly think I'm the best man for president in the next four years?"

Startled, Dirksen eyed the president intently for a moment, then breaking into a broad smile shook his head in mock perplexity and in his most mellifluous style replied:

"Mr. President, surely you know me well enough to know that I'm far too modest and honest to frankly answer such an obvious leading question."

"Yes, I know," grinned the president. "I know you, all right."

DIRKSEN IS besieged by publishers for his memoirs covering more than 30 years of service in both branches of Congress and as a national political figure. Some offers run into five figures, but he's not signed yet.

President Johnson will not try to compete with the GOP convention for the headlines this week. All important administration announcements will be delayed until after the San Francisco conclave.

The president has expressed the hope that the Republican convention would divert major public attention from civil rights clashes in the South and elsewhere.

THE JOHNSON administration has agreed to foot the bill for returning some 10,000 Belgian civilian and military technicians and advisers to the Congo in a new effort to "stabilize" that turmoil-racked country.

Estimated cost of this still-unannounced project is between 80 and 100 million dollars, in addition to the 300 million dollars the U. S. put into the United Nations "peace force" that was finally liquidated last week—having solved nothing.

Irony of the return of the Belgian technicians and advisers is that the U. S. was largely responsible for their ouster.

NOW IT'S PUTTING up the money to bring them back. These plans are part of a backstage agreement worked out by President Johnson and Belgian Premier Paul-Henri Spaak in a series of personal communications over a period of months. Also participating in these exchanges was Moise Tshombe, one-time president of Katanga Province, whom the U. S. helped force into exile. His return to the Congo to head a new government for the entire country is part of the Johnson-Spaak understanding.

Street Names Are Monuments To Mill Valley's Early Citizens

A STREET IS NOT just a name. "It's a monument," according to Irv Dowd, who used to drive two- and three-seated horse carriages for his father's Fashion Stables on Throckmorton Avenue in Mill Valley. "I met the trains," he said, "and took people over the hill to Muir Woods. Those were the days! I wish I could see them again."

Asked how some of the streets were named, Irv replied, "Each member of the Tamalpais Land and Water Co. was allowed to name one street for a woman in his family. Lovell and Miller were named after members of the company, Ethel for the daughter of Lovell White. Ralston was named for White's son.

"Elinor was named for Elinor Burt, Olive and Marguerite after wives of Magee and Miller.

"IN THE PARK district, streets were named after trees —Catalpa, Walnut, Locust and Sycamore. Birch was secretary of the water company and not a tree. Pimlott Lane was for old George Pimlott, the electrician. Heuter Lane was named for the people with Heuter's Paint, and Gomez Way, of course, for Mannie.

"Hilarita and Carmelita were named for the Boyle girls, but somehow a third daughter, Ida May, was left out. Matilda is for the late Tom Deffebach's sister. Rowan Way was named for Colonel Rowan, the man who carried the message to Garcia in Cuba, Todd Way for Ann Todd, and Tennessee Avenue for a ship that was wrecked out there.

"Wickham, I believe, is named after one of the present councilman's relatives, Helen's Lane for Helen McNamara. Keats and Kipling are for poets, and Lyford for Dr. Lyford, who was married to one of the Reed daughters.

"JOSEPHINE WAS named for a maid in the Meyer's family. Throckmorton was attorney for William Richardson, who got the Sausalito land grant. Roque Moraes owned Enchanted Knolls, and they pronounce that street in every fashion — Rake Morris, Rock Mo-rise and Rocky Moors."

Blithedale was named by Dr. Cushing, a New Englander who revered Hawthorne and his book, "Blythedale Romance." It was first spelled with a "y" and then changed to an "i."

"Those were the days," said Dowd.

THE SADDEST sight at the Bolinas Fourth of July parade was Karen McLaren, who was all dressed for a parade and had placed a rose on the tail of her horse and then—due to noise of crackers and sirens—had to walk, not ride.

The other Sunday we went to sea with Sausalito salt Herb Madden, two Mill Valley school teachers, Sausalito's former publisher John Harlan and a clump of people from Minnesota. It was the sunset cruise of the Russ Lewis family and the air was like wine.

In the spirit of the voyage, we and the Minnesotans waved to the diners at the Spinnaker restaurant. They waved back. We saw the underside of the Golden Gate Bridge, we saw the spray, we took a roller coaster ride.

We learned, according to Skipper Lewis's historical and non-historical data that: "It's the only bridge you can walk across" and "there's always an opening for painters." As spray broke over the bow, we heard "there's no extra charge" and "nothing like it in Chicago." "Sometimes we see whales jump up six times" and "this is the only active whaler station in the U. S."

A Japanese ship, the Osoharu Maru, passed us on the port. We waved, the Minnesotans waved and those people on the ship waved. "You are now in international waters, in the Pacific Ocean," called Lewis. The boat bumped from the wake of the Osoharu Maru and Lewis cried out, "You girls could really make coffee here. . . . Bring the Squilgee," he yelled to his wife, Veda, who did.

"Guards never used to let us get this close," said Lewis as we almost leaned on Alcatraz. We next were told the waters where deer once swam across from Keil Cove, Tiburon, to Angel Island, and then arrived at Sausalito yacht harbor. "A good ride," said Madden. We agreed. So did the Minnesotans.

ART BUCHWALD

Everything Seems To Be Stalled, Everyone's Going To Conventions

WASHINGTON—"This country has got conventionitis," said Charley Jones the other day, as we talked of the San Francisco GOP gathering.

"How's that?"

"People are always going to a convention somewhere. This morning I had a pain in my arm, so I called the doctor and his nurse said he wouldn't be back until next week.

" 'Where is he?' I wanted to know.

" 'He's at a doctors' convention in Atlantic City,' she said.

' 'But I have a pain in my arm,' I told her.

" 'Yes,' she said, 'that's why the doctor went to Atlantic City. He's going to read a paper on arm pains to the group.'

"SO I ASKED HER to recommend another doctor, which she did, and I called him. His nurse reported he was at a medical convention in Boston.

" 'I have a pain in my arm,' I complained.

" 'The doctor's gone to a stomach conference. Even if he was here I doubt if he could do you any good,' she said.

"So I decided the heck with the doctor. I'd go down to the drugstore and ask my pal, Doc, the druggist, to recommend something. When I got there, I discovered a new man behind the counter. I asked where Doc was. 'He's gone to a pharmacists' convention in Miami, Fla.,' the man said. 'He won't be back until Tuesday.'

"I returned home and my wife said, 'Why don't you call Harry Ferguson. He gets pain in his arms all the time.' I called Harry, who is an English teacher, but his wife said he was in Chicago attending an English symposium.

" 'BY THE WAY,' she asked me, 'do you know of a plumber I could call?'

" 'What's the matter with Mr. Foote?' I asked her.

" 'He's gone to a convention in Las Vegas.'

" 'Don't tell me plumbers have conventions?' I said.

" 'No, he's gone to a reunion of the 86th Airborne Division. He won't be back until Friday.'

" 'Why don't you call Mr. Harrison?'

" 'He's being honored as the Plumber of the Year at the Gas and Hot Water Assn. in Memphis, Tenn.'

" 'Well, good luck," I told her.

" 'Why don't you go down to the Washington Athletic Club and put some heat on it?' my wife said.

"SO I WENT DOWN to the club and asked for my regular masseur. He was attending a YMCA meeting in Detroit. I decided the best thing was to work the arm out playing handball. So I called my pal, Jack Smith, only to discover he was at a publishers' convention in Paris, Larry Diamond was at a handbag sellers' banquet in St. Louis, and Sheldon Cohen was at a bar association meeting in San Francisco."

"You do seem to be having a tough time of it," we told him.

"That's not the half of it," Charley said. "I called my boss to tell him I wouldn't be coming in and he was in Los Angeles at a monetary conference. My secretary was at Vassar for homecoming week. And the telephone operator was attending a charm school course in Billings, Mont."

"WELL, I WISH I could help you," we said, "but my doctor is in Syracuse for a sore throat debate."

"What the hell," Charley said. "Maybe we could just have lunch together."

"I'd like to," we said, "but I have to leave in a few minutes for Minneapolis for Brotherhood Week. Everyone has to take a brother to lunch."

Chess Titles Won By San Quentin

Chess playing inmates of San Quentin prison have taken first place in two Bay Area chess leagues, earning them the right to vie for the Northern California championship.

The prison's Morphy Chess Club, victorious in the El Camino Real and Bay Area Industrial leagues, is to compete with a Redwood City team soon. That tourney will determine who plays an East Bay club for top honors of the Chess Friends of Northern California Assn.

BESIDES SUPERMAN,

WHO'S FASTER THAN A SPEEDING BULLET?

WE ARE.
WE'RE GROWING BY $3,016 EACH WORKING HOUR.

And for a bank that's spectacular. Faster than any other in the area.

From June 30, 1963 to June 30, 1964, Redwood National Bank's deposits have increased from 7.3 million to 13.6. Figuring 2,088 working hours per year, we've been growing pretty fast. And our total assets are up from 8.9 million to 15.8, no less extraordinary.

Now, of course, Superman wouldn't be completely impressed by money. He cares a lot more about picking up buildings and racing rocket ships and saving ravished females and so on. But, frankly, we do care about money. We care because we know that our deposit picture reflects the exact degree to which the community is responding to our services, our ideas, our banking attitude. It's a kind of community mandate when you grow at such speed. And too, it's a reflection that indeed we are playing a significant role in the growth of this region, and the economic well-being of all its people.

But don't you think we're going to rest on our laurels. With this sort of support, we're just getting going. We're out to permanently destroy the notion that all banks are the same. To borrow a phrase from an old friend—"Up, up, and away."

Today is Monday, July 13th, the 195th day of 1964 with 171 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter; the morning stars are Jupiter, Saturn, Mars, and Venus.

Those born today are under the sign of Cancer.

On this day in history:

In 1887, Congress set up the first organized government west of the original colonies with the enactment of the Northwest Ordinance.

In 1863, riots broke out in New York City against the draft law.

In 1865, Horace Greeley advised federal civil servants to "go west."

In 1961, Adolf Eichmann said during his trial in Israel that the killing of Jews was a hideous crime. He died one year later for that crime.

The Thought for the Day: Novelist Henrik Ibsen said: "I hold that man is in the right who is most clearly in league with the future."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Lightface type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Praise For Your Partner Can Help Disguise Own Faults

Kindness and patience are the essential qualities in the care and training of partners. Be ready with a word of praise now and then. It may cover up your own misdeeds.

Opening lead — ♡ Q

When this hand was played, West led the queen of hearts, and East had nothing but praise for this obedience when the hand was over.

"It didn't happen to help us this time," East remarked, "but it shows that you're trying to be a good partner. Just keep leading my suit when I take the trouble to bid a suit, and you'll be on Easy Street."

West glowed with pride, as South scored up the rubber and an overtrick. All of which proves that flattery may not defeat the contract but at least it makes your partner a cheerful loser.

East could have been a cheerful winner if he had paid more attention to his own play. East spared the six of hearts at the first trick as an encouraging signal. The encouragement to continue hearts was wasted, for South refused the first trick and West had no other heart to lead.

USELESS SWITCH

West had to switch to a different suit, but nothing could help him. The shift to clubs was won in dummy, and declarer naturally began to work on the diamonds.

When East took the king of diamonds he led another heart, anu South won a finesse with the jack. Declarer then knocked out the other top diamond and could claim the rest of the tricks.

As every alert reader has surely noticed, East deserved no praise for his play at the first trick. Instead of signalling with the six of hearts, East must overtake with the king of hearts.

If South refuses the first trick, East wins with his king of hearts and can continue with another heart to force out one of declarer's stoppers. South must try to develop the diamonds, but cannot do so in time. East takes the king of diamonds and knocks out the ace of hearts. East then gets in with the ace of diamonds in time to run the rest of the hearts.

QUESTION

As dealer, you hold:
♠ K 10 9 5
♥ A J 8
♦ 8 6 2
♣ K J 7

What do you say?

Answer: Pass.

You have only 12 points in high cards, and rather unattractive distribution. This is about a queen short of the strength required for an opening bid.

At sundown, sun glasses reduce all the light in your field of vision, warns the medical department of Northwest National Lift Insurance Co. And, if you drive in sunglasses at dusk or after dark, you can easily fail to see an oncoming car.

where do most Marin County home BUYERS come from?

Latest research* shows that 64.4% of all home buyers in Marin County come from Marin County itself . . . only 20% from San Francisco.

Marin then, is your top market for buyers. And the Independent-Journal your top advertising medium — covering more than 2 out of every 3 families in Marin.

When you advertise outside of Marin . . .

you're paying for the "whole loaf" and getting only a slice.

When you use the I-J . . .

you're on target with the market at vastly lower advertising cost.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

White Spots On Skin Show Up In Summertime, Are Hard To Treat

VAN DELLEN

Some people lose skin pigment in irregular islands (vitiligo). These individuals do not look forward to the summer months because exposure to the sun aggravates the condition. White patches on the face, neck, arms, or back of the hands become whiter and more noticeable. This is an illusion; the normal skin surrounding the white spots tans whereas the unpigmented areas remain the same.

Vitiligo presents a challenge to dermatologists. The patches are round or irregular in shape and vary in size. Only one or two may be present or depigmentation may involve half the body surface. The hairs over the affected skin may lose their color.

VITILIGO SHOULD not be confused with albinism, in which there is no pigment. In vitiliginous areas pigment is lacking but pigment-forming cells (melanocytes) may exist. Successful treatment depends upon whether these cells can be stimulated with hormones or methoxsalen drugs.

The latter are taken orally or painted over the lesions. This makes the skin overly sensitive to ultraviolet light. The melanocytes may be stimulated provided the individual is exposed to a gradually increasing dosage of sunlight about 45 minutes after the medicine is used

BURNING MUST be avoided and the product should never be used except under the supervision of a physician. Furthermore, it takes several months for repigmentation to occur and users must be on the alert for side reactions.

The psoralens are tricky to use and most victims will find it safer to stick with the older remedies. Avoid the sun to prevent tanning of the normal skin. Stain the patches the color of normal skin. There are several stains available but the proper mixture is needed. Therefore it is wiser to consult a specialist. Some dermatologists recommend tattooing the white spots with gold salts. Four to 12 treatments usually are needed and the best results are seen on face and neck.

Alpha-MSH is a melanocyte stimulating hormone that may offer hope for the future. It acts directly on the pigment forming cells, but its use in this condition has not been evaluated.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

CALCIUM AND AGE

S. M. writes: Is it true that old age is caused by calcium leaving the bones?

REPLY

No, but many oldsters suffer from a deficiency of calcium because of too little in their diet. As a result, the body steals the mineral from the bones and a variety of symptoms occur, including backache and bowing of the extremities.

UNLIKELY

A. P. writes: Could heavy drinking on the part of the father cause a baby to be mentally retarded?

REPLY

Probably not, considering the many causes of mental retardation and the number of children with this condition whose parents are not heavy drinkers.

PUNCTURE AFTER STROKE

C. M. writes: Why is a spinal puncture given after a stroke?

REPLY

This is not a routine procedure in strokes. But it is done now and then to determine whether a hermorrhage is responsible for symptoms.

PAIN AFTER SURGERY

E. K. writes: I have heard rumors that the pains following hemorrhoidectomy are extremely severe. Is this so?

REPLY

This is a sensitive area and the surgeon orders medication to relieve pain.

Teen-agers are exploding all over the place...

Their numbers are sky-rocketing annually. By 1970 we'll have 28.2 million of them in the United States. What they spend on clothes, Dad alone knows. But when they come piling in to a party, you can figure the young hostess spends about $14.50 per planned party, and she does usually plan it herself. 72% of all teen-agers read the daily newspaper... so that's the place to help them plan what to wear, what to serve at the party. In fact, whatever you want to sell them, tell them about it in the newspaper.

Explosion Victim Still In Hospital

Mrs. Ulra Lutz, 45, of Chicago a passenger aboard a 56-foot power cruiser which exploded Friday night off the Tiburon waterfront, remained in satisfactory condition today at Marin General Hospital.

She suffered first and second degree burns on the right hand and arm and a cut knee when the boat, carrying 21 guests of Floyd Hansen of Piedmont, blew up and sank.

All of the passengers were rescued from the water shortly after the blast and 13 received treatment for minor injuries.

The heart works seven to 10 times harder at 90 degrees than at 70 degrees.

Former Marin Girl Set For Peace Corps

Gretchen Glazier, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. K. M. Glazier, former Terra Linda residents, has been accepted in the Peace Corps projects in Ethiopia to start this fall.

A June, 1960, graduate of San Rafael High School, Gretchen received a four-year continuing scholarship from the Marin County Labor Council which aided her four-year college career at Stanford University.

She applied for entry in the Stanford intern program in secondary education, a summer program at Radcliffe and the Peace Corps and was accepted in all three.

"The Peace Corps was the one I heard from last," she said in a recent letter to Hugh Cassidy, secretary of the Marin County Labor Council. "Needless to say I had been giving my choice much thought and when the Peace Corps invitation came, I was sure that that was what I wanted to do."

Gretchen has begun Peace Corps training at the University of California at Los Angeles in preparation for being a high school English teacher in Ethiopia.

Fairfax Council Meets Tonight

Donald Gallagher of Kentfield, a former chief of the State Compensation Insurance Fund, will speak to the Fairfax City Council tonight concerning insurance compensation for councilmen while on city business.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m. at the Fairfax Women's club.

Councilmen have expressed concern over whether they could be covered for accidents occuring while on city business because they are not salaried.

Other business to be considered includes a request from Ridgeway Park Improvement Club for a stop light at Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Williow Avenue.

Peace Corps Tests Attract Two Takers

Two men took a Peace Corps Placement Test at the San Rafael Post Office Saturday, E. A. Rossi, civil service examiner, reported.

The test was one of a series given at regular intervals for Peace Corps applicants, who are required to fill out a questionnairs before taking the test.

Second Round Set On Coleman Zone

The second round of the zoning battle over San Rafael's Grand Avenue will be resumed tomorrow night before the city planning commission.

Public hearing on the proposed rezoning of the old Coleman School property at 1711 Grand Avenue is the first item on a long agenda that the commission will face when its meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. in San Rafael city hall.

A change from unclassified to administrative-professional zone has been requested on the land by Richard Petlon, William T. Bagley and others.

At the first hearing, June 23, about 80 neighbors jammed the meeting room to protest the change. They saw it as an inroad into a residential area.

The commission could take action on the request at the close of tomorrow's hearing.

Gas stations figure heavily among other items on the planning agenda. Shell Oil Co. seeks a use permit and architectural approval for a station at Del Presidio Boulevard and Manuel Freitas Parkway. Humble Oil Co. is seeking approval of a station at the same intersection, but across the street.

Both these applications were held up from last meeting to get more information on traffic patterns.

Shell Oil Co. is also seeking a use permit and architectural approval for a station at Second and Shaver streets.

The proposed 39-unit Larkspur Village, planned on the north side of Larkspur Street by Marin Properties, will be before the commission in a subdivision application and request for architectural approval. The 39-unit condominium would be built on a 14-lot tract.

High School Pupils Learn Stage Craft

Five Marin County high school students are taking part in the 11th annual summer drama workshop at San Francisco State College.

They are Jan Overturf of Mill Valley, Valice Harder of Tiburon, and Dennis Turrentine, Judy Navas and Linda McCollister, all of San Rafael.

Along with 37 other Bay Area residents, they are learning the five points of acting, stage-craft and related subjects from members of the college faculty.

They will present a free self-prepared demonstration program at 8 p.m. July 24, and will conclude the workshop with performances of the French comedy "The Madwoman of Chaillot" July 30 and 31 at the college.

Officer At Fort Baker Receives Promotion

Maj. John H. McNally of Fort Baker, a veteran of four campaigns, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

A native of New York, he enlisted in the Army shortly before the end of World War II and was commissioned a second lieutenant by the chemical corps officer's candidate school in December, 1945.

School Employees Delegates Elected

Mrs. Marcellene Aber of 109 Professional Center Parkway, Terra Linda, and Mrs. Margaret Huffman of 54 Madrone Avenue, San Anselmo, have been elected delegates to the California School Employees Assn. convention in Long Beach July 28 - Aug. 1 by the association's Marin chapter.

Both women are employed in the office of the county superintendent of schools at the civic center.

Budget Tops San Anselmo Agenda Items

Final approval of San Anselmo's 1964-65 budget, expected to come to $872,010, tops the agenda for tomorrow night's meeting of the San Anselmo City Council, scheduled for 8 p.m. at City Hall.

Unless councilmen make further slashes in the proposed budget, the city's tax rate for the new fiscal year will be $2.03, up 10 cents from the 1963-64 rate.

Councilmen also will discuss progress of repairs on the city's ill-fated Caletta Avenue Bridge, parts of which gave way during spring rains, to the distress of area residents.

Planning, Money On Tiburon Council Agenda

Two planning items will be on the agenda of the Tiburon City Council when it meets at 8 p.m. today at Del Mar School.

John Kaufman is requesting council approval of a lot split of property at 1761 Mar West Street which would result in two substandard lots. Milton McDonogh is asking permission to realign and extend a pier at 21 Main Street without filing of a master plan in a planned-commercial zoning area.

Both items have been approved by the county planning commission, but with Tiburon incorporation, now must get city approval.

Also on the agenda tonight will be a discussion of where the city will borrow funds to pay for its operations until tax monies and state reimbursements are received.

The effect of relative humidity on comfort is significant. For instance, a person is as comfortable at 82 degrees and 40 per cent relative humidity as he is at 78 degrees and 60 per cent relative humidity.

Two Ranking Army Men Retiring

Two high-ranking Army officers who live in Marin have received the Army Commendation Medal at retirement ceremonies at the Presidio of San Francisco.

For Col. Jerome B. York of 10 Ash Avenue, Kentfield, the ceremony meant the addition of a second Oak Leaf Cluster to his Medal. He left his post as Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence to become July 1 and instructor in business administration at College of Marin, where he had previously taught accounting in evening school.

For Lt. Col. Harrison M. Phillips of 130 Trellis Drive, San Rafael, who briefed Army Secretary Wilbur M. Brucker on Army Intelligence matters from 1957-1959, it meant the end of 22 years of active duty. York had served nearly 24 years.

A veteran of World War II, York, 48, had received the Bronze Star and the Purple Heart for wounds sustained in in action in the Southwest Pacific.

He has seen duty in the Office of the Army Chief of Staff in Washington, D.C., with the Army Air Defense Command in Oklahoma City, and as Executive Officer and Commanding Officer of the VII Corps Artillery. He has been at the Presidio since 1961.

Black Point Club Plans Carnival

Members of the Black Point Improvement Club made initial plans for a carnival in October to benefit their building fund.

There has been no date set for the carnival but it will be near Halloween, reported Mrs. Marge Cresta, club secretary.

The association is acquiring funds to build a clubhouse, Mrs. Cresta said.

Date Changed For Plan Meeting

The Tiburon Planning Commission will hold a work-study session at the Del Mar School at 8 p.m. next Monday, Stephen H. Nash chairman, reported today.

The Independent-Journal story Saturday reported the meeting would be held Friday, but Nash said he had mistakenly announced the wrong date.

After the study session, the commission will meet on the first and third Mondays of each month at 8 p.m.

District Is Proposed

Progress report on setting up a special district to develop the Saucelito Canal is among items scheduled for the July 20 meeting of the Small Craft Harbors Commission, starting at 9 a.m. in State Office Building No. 1, Sacramento.
